P R E F A C E

This is the second Edition of the West Bengal Code, issued in eight volumes. In its get-up it follows very much the same pattern as that of the preceding edition. There is hardly any change worthy of mention, except that in order to make the work more useful, attempts have been made to include a larger number of references to Rules, Orders, Notifications, etc. issued under the various enactments in force in West Bengal.

This Volume I contains Bengal Regulations, Local Acts of the Governor General of India in Council, Local Acts of the Indian Legislature, Central Acts as modified in their application to West Bengal, Local Act made by the Governor General under section 67B of the Government of India Act, and Regulations made under the Government of India Act, 1870, and the Government of India Act, 1935, as modified upto the 31st December, 1964.

Since the issue of the last edition of the West Bengal Code considerable legislation has been enacted, among which there are numerous enactments containing repealing and amending provisions. Special attention has been given, and meticulous care taken, to incorporate in loco in the corresponding principal Acts, and it is hoped that no serious error or omission will be discovered.

I would like to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to Shri I. D. Jalan, Minister-in-charge of the Department of Excise and Judicial and Legislative Departments of the Government of West Bengal, whose support and encouragement has contributed in no small measure towards the issue of this publication. I would also offer my thanks to Shri P. M. Perris, Special Officer of this department, who has prepared this edition of the Code and has rendered valuable services in this connection.

S. SEN GUPTA,
Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, Legislative Department.

CALCUTTA,
The 31st December, 1964.

5. Article IV.—The lands of some zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, having been held khas, or let in farm, in consequence of their refusing to pay the assessment required of them under the Regulations above-mentioned, the Governor General in Council¹ now notifies to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land whose lands are held khas that they shall be restored to the management of their lands, upon their agreeing to the payment of the assessment which has been or may be required of them, in conformity to the Regulations above-mentioned, and that no alteration shall afterwards be made in that assessment but that they, and their heirs and lawful successors, shall be permitted to hold their respective estates at such assessment for ever :

and he declares to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, whose lands have been let in farm, that they shall not regain possession of their lands before the expiration of the period for which they have been farmed (unless the farmers shall voluntarily consent to make over to them the remaining term of their lease, and the Governor General in Council¹ shall approve of the transfer), but that at the expiration of that period, upon their agreeing to the payment of the assessment which may be required of them, they shall be reinstated, and that no alteration shall afterwards be made in that assessment, but that they, and their heirs and lawful successors, shall be allowed to hold their respective estates at such assessment for ever.

6. Article V.—In the event of the proprietary right in lands that are, or may become, the property of Government being transferred to individuals, such individuals, and their heirs and lawful successors, shall be permitted to hold the lands at the assessment at which they may be transferred for ever.

Jama of lands belonging to Government, but transferred to individuals, fixed for ever.

7. Article VI.—It is well known to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, as well as to the inhabitants of Bengal, [Bihar and Orissa], in general, that from the earliest times until the present period the public assessment upon the land has never been fixed, but that, according to established usage and custom, the rulers of these provinces have from time to time demanded an increase of assessment from the proprietors of land; and that, for the purpose of obtaining this increase, not only frequent investigations have been made to ascertain the actual produce of their estates, but that it has been the practice to deprive them of the management of their lands, and either to let them in farm, or to appoint officers on the part of Government to collect the assessment immediately from the rai-yats.

Assessment in former times liable to variation at discretion of Government.

The Honourable Court of Directors, considering these usages and measures to be detrimental to the prosperity of the country, have, with a view to promote the future ease and happiness of the people, authorized the foregoing declarations ; and the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, are to consider these orders fixing the amount of the assessment as irrevocable, and not liable to alteration by any persons whom the Court of Directors may hereafter appoint to the administration of their affairs in this country.

Proprietors expected to improve estates.

The Governor General in Council¹ trusts that the proprietors of land, sensible of the benefits conferred upon them by the public assessment being fixed for ever, will exert themselves in the cultivation of their lands, under the certainty that they will enjoy exclusively the fruits of their own good management and industry, and that no demand will ever be made upon them, or their heirs or successors, by the present or any future Government, for an augmentation of the public assessment in consequence of the improvement of their respective estates.

Conduct to be observed by proprietors towards dependent talukdars and rai-yats.

To discharge the revenues at the stipulated periods without delay or evasion and to conduct themselves with good faith and moderation towards their dependent talukdars and rai-yats, are duties at all times indispensably required from the proprietors of land, and a strict observance of those duties is now more than ever incumbent upon them, in return for the benefits which they will themselves derive from the orders now issued.

The Governor General in council¹ therefore expects that the proprietors of land will not only act in this manner themselves towards their dependent talukdars and rai-yats, but also enjoin the strictest adherence to the same principles in the persons whom they may appoint to collect the rents from them.

No claims for remissions or suspensions.

He further expects that, without deviating from this line of conduct, they will regularly discharge the revenue in all seasons; and he accordingly notifies to them, that, in future, no claims or application for suspensions or remissions, on account of drought, inundation or other calamity of seasons, will be attended to, but that in the event of any zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, or his or her heirs or successors, failing in the punctual discharge of the public revenue which has been or may be assessed upon their lands under the above-mentioned Regulations, a sale of the whole of the lands of the defaulter, or such portion of them as may be sufficient to make good the arrear, will positively and invariably take place.

8. Article VII.—To prevent any misconstruction of the foregoing articles the Governor General in Council¹ thinks it necessary to make the following declarations to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land :—

First.—It being the duty of the ruling power to protect all classes of people and more particularly those who from their situation are most helpless, the Governor General in Council¹ will, whenever he may deem it proper, enact such Regulations as he may think necessary for the protection and welfare of the dependent talukdars, rai-yats and other cultivators of the soil; and no zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land shall be entitled on this account to make any objection to the discharge of the fixed assessment which they have respectively agreed to pay.

Regulations for protection of rai-yats,
etc.

Second.—The Governor General in Council¹ having, on the 28th July, 1790, directed the sair collections to be abolished, a full compensation was granted to the proprietors of land for the loss of revenue sustained by them in consequence of this abolition; and he now declares that, if he should hereafter think it proper to re-establish the sair collections or any other internal duties, and to appoint officers on the part of Government to collect them, no proprietor of land will be admitted to any participation thereof, or be entitled to make any claims for remissions of assessment on that account.

ment to all

Third.—The Governor General in Council¹ will impose such assessment as he may deem equitable on all lands at present alienated and paying no public revenue which have been or may be proved to be held under illegal or invalid titles.

(Sec. 8.)

The assessment so imposed will belong to Government and no proprietor of land will be entitled to any part of it.

Fourth.—The jama of those zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, which is declared fixed in the foregoing articles, is to be considered entirely unconnected with, and exclusive of, any allowances which have been made to them in the adjustment of their jama, for keeping up thanas or police establishments, and also of the produce of any lands which they may have been permitted to appropriate for the same purpose, and the Governor General in Council¹ reserves to himself the option of resuming the whole or part of such allowances, or produce of such lands, according as he may think proper in consequence of his having exonerated the proprietors of land from the charge of keeping the peace, and appointed officers on the part of Government to superintend the police of the country.

The Governor General in Council¹, however, declares that the allowances or produce of lands which may be resumed will be appropriated to no other purpose but that of defraying the expense of the police; and that instructions will be sent to the Collectors not to add such allowances, or the produce of such lands, to the jama of the proprietors of land, but to collect the amount from them separately.

Fifth.—Nothing contained in this proclamation shall be construed to render the lands of the several descriptions of disqualified proprietors, specified in the first Article of the Regulations regarding disqualified landholders, passed on the 15th July, 1791, liable to sale for any arrears which have accrued or may accrue on the fixed jama that has been or may be assessed upon their lands under the above-mentioned Regulations for the decennial settlement: provided that such arrears have accrued or may accrue during the time that they have been or may be dispossessed of the management of their lands under the said Regulations of the 15th July, 1791.

It is to be understood, however, that whenever all or any of the descriptions of disqualified landholders, specified in the first Article of the last-mentioned Regulations, shall be permitted to assume or retain the management of their lands, in consequence of the ground of their disqualification no longer existing, or of the Governor General in Council¹ dispensing with, altering or abolishing those Regulations, the lands of such proprietors will be held responsible for the payment of the fixed jama that has been or may be assessed thereon, from the time that the management may devolve upon them, in the same manner as the lands of all actual proprietors of land who are declared qualified for the management of their estates, and also of all actual proprietors who are unqualified for such management, by natural or other disabilities, but do not come within the descriptions of disqualified landholders specified in the first Article of the Regulations of the 15th July, 1791, are and will be held answerable, for any arrears that are or may become due from them, on the fixed jama which they, or any persons on their behalf, have engaged or may engage to pay, under the above-mentioned Regulations, for the decennial settlement.

9. Article VIII.—That no doubt may be entertained whether proprietors of land are entitled, under the existing Regulations, to dispose of their estates without the previous sanction of Government, the Governor-General in Council¹ notifies to the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land that they are privileged to transfer to whomsoever they may think proper, by sale, gift or otherwise, their proprietary rights in the whole or any portion of their respective estates, without applying to Government for its sanction to the transfer, and that all such transfer will be held valid :

Proprietors may transfer lands without sanction of Government.

Provided that they be conformable to the Muhammadan or the Hindu laws (according as the religious persuasions of the parties to each transaction may render the validity of it determinable by the former or the latter Code), and that they be not repugnant to any Regulations now in force, which have been passed by the British administrations, or to any Regulations that they may hereafter enact.

Rules for apportioning fixed jama on portions of estates in event of sale or transfer, and on shares of estates.

10. Article IX.—From the limitation of the public demand upon the lands, the net income, and consequently the value (independent of increase of rent obtainable by improvements), of any landed property, for the assessment on which a distinct engagement has been or may be entered into, between Government and the proprietor, or that may be separately assessed, although included in one engagement with other estates belonging to the same proprietor, and which may be offered for public or private sale entire, will always be ascertainable by a comparison of the amount of the fixed jama assessed upon it (which, agreeable to the foregoing declarations, is to remain unalterable for ever, to whomsoever the property may be transferred), with the whole of its produce, allowing for the charges of management.

But it is also essential that a notification should be made of the principles upon which the fixed assessment charged upon any such estate will be apportioned on the several divisions of it, in the event of the whole of it being transferred by public or private sale, or otherwise, in two or more lots or of a portion of it being transferred in one, or in two or more lots, or of its being joint property, and a division of it being made amongst the proprietors; otherwise, from the want of a declared rule for estimating the proportion of the fixed jama with which the several shares would be chargeable in such cases, the real value of each share would be uncertain, and consequently the benefits expected to result from fixing the public assessment upon the lands would be but partially obtained.

The Governor General in Council¹ has accordingly prescribed the following rules for apportioning the fixed assessments in the several cases above-mentioned; But as Government might sustain a considerable loss of revenue by disproportionate allotments of the assessment were the apportioning of it, in any of the cases above specified, to be left to the proprietors, he requires that all such transfers or divisions as may be made by the private act of the parties themselves be not-fied to the Collector of the revenue of the zila in which the lands may be situated, or such other officer as Government may in future prescribe, in order that the fixed jama, assessed upon the whole estate, may be apportioned on the several shares in the manner hereafter directed, and that the names of the proprietors of each share and the jama charged thereon may be entered upon the public registers, and that separate engagements for the payment of the jama assessed upon each share may be executed by the proprietors, who will thenceforward be considered as actual proprietors of land.

Andt he Governor General in Council¹ declares that, if the parties to such transfers or divisions shall omit to notify them to the Collector of the revenue of the zila or such other officer as may be hereafter prescribed, for the purposes before-mentioned, the whole of such estate will be held responsible to Government for the discharge of the fixed jama assessed upon it, in the same manner as if no such transfer or division had ever taken place.

The Governor General in Council¹ thinks it necessary further to notify, in elucidation of the declarations contained in this Article (which are conformable to the principles of the existing Regulations), that if any zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land shall dispose of a portion of his or her lands as a dependent taluk, the jama which may be stipulated to be paid by the dependent talukdar will not be entered upon the records of Government, nor will the transfer exempt such lands from being answerable, in common with the remainder of the estate, for the payment of the public revenue assessed upon the whole of it, in the event of the proprietor, or his or her heirs or successors, falling in arrear from any cause whatever, nor will it be allowed, in any case, to affect the rights or claims of Government, any more than if it had never taken place.

First.—In the event of the whole of the lands of a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, under the Regulations above-mentioned, being exposed to public sale by the order of the Governor General in Council¹, for the discharge of arrears of assessment, or in consequence of the decision of a Court of Justice, in two or more lots, the assessment upon each lot shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the fixed assessment upon the whole of the lands sold may bear to the whole of their actual produce.

This produce shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed by the existing Regulations, or such other Regulations as the Governor General in Council¹ may hereafter adopt, and the purchaser or purchasers of such lands, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall hold them at the jama at which they may be so purchased, for ever.

Second.—When a portion of the lands of a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, under the Regulations before-mentioned, shall be exposed to public sale, by order of the Governor General in Council¹, for the liquidation of arrears of assessment, or pursuant to the decision of a Court of Justice, the assessment upon such lands, if disposed of in one lot, shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to their actual produce as the fixed assessment upon the whole of the lands of such proprietor, including those disposed of, may bear to the whole of their actual produce.

If the lands sold shall be disposed of in two or more lots, the assessment upon each lot shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the fixed assessment upon the whole of the lands of such proprietor, including those sold, may bear to the whole of their actual produce.

The actual produce of the whole of the lands of such proprietor, whether the portion of them which may be sold be disposed of in one or in two or more lots, shall be ascertained in Third.—When a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, with or on behalf of whom a settlement has been or may be concluded, shall transfer the whole of his or her estate, in two or more distinct portions, to two or more persons, or a portion thereof to one person, or to two or more persons in joint property, by private sale, gift or otherwise, the assessment upon each distinct portion of such estate so transferred shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the assessment upon the whole of the estate of the transferring proprietor, of which the whole or a portion may be so transferred, may bear to the whole of its actual produce.

This produce shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed in the existing Regulations, or such other Regulations as Government may hereafter adopt, and the person or persons to whom such lands may be transferred, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall hold them at the jama at which they may be so transferred, for ever : and where only a portion of such estate shall be transferred, the remainder of the public jama which will consequently be payable by the former proprietor of the whole estate² on account of the lands that may remain in his or her possession shall be continued unalterable for ever.

Fourth.—Whenever a division shall be made of lands, the settlement of which has been or may be concluded with or on behalf of the proprietor or proprietors, and that are or may become the joint property of two or more persons, the assessment upon each share shall be fixed at an amount which shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the fixed jama assessed upon the whole of the estate divided may bear to the whole of its actual produce.

This produce shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed by the existing Regulations or such other Regulations as the Governor General in Council¹ may hereafter adopt, and the sharers, and their heirs and lawful successors, shall hold their respective shares at the jama which may be so assessed upon them, for ever.

⁹11. Article X.—The following rules are prescribed respecting the adjustment of the assessment on the lands of zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land, whose lands are or may be held khas or let in farm in the event of their being disposed of by public sale, or transferred, by any private act of the proprietor, or of their being joint property, and a division of them taking place amongst the proprietors.

First.—If the whole, or a portion of the lands of a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land who may not have agreed to the payment of the assessment proposed to him or her under the Regulations above-mentioned, and whose lands are or may be held khas or let in farm, shall be exposed to public sale in one or in two or more lots (pursuant to the decree of a Court of Justice), such lands, if khas, shall be disposed of at whatever assessment the Governor General in Council¹ may deem equitable, and the purchaser or purchasers of such lands, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall hold the lands at the assessment at which they may be so purchased, for ever.

(Sec. II.)

If the lands, at the time of their being exposed to sale, shall be held in farm, and shall be put up in one or in two or more lots, they shall be disposed of under the following conditions:—

The purchaser or purchasers shall receive, during the unexpired part of the term of the lease of the farmer, whatever such proprietor shall have been entitled to receive, in virtue of his or her proprietary rights, on account of the land so purchased, and such purchaser or purchasers shall engage to pay, at the expiration of the lease of the farmer, such assessment on account of the lands as Government may deem equitable.

The sum to be received by the purchaser or purchasers during the unexpired part of the term of the lease of the farmer, and the jama to be paid by such purchaser or purchasers after the expiration of the lease, shall be specified at the time of the sale, and such purchaser or purchasers, and his or her or their heirs and lawful successors, shall be allowed to hold the lands at the assessment at which they may be so purchased, for ever.

Second.—If a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor of land, whose lands are or may be held khas or let in farm, shall transfer by private sale, gift or otherwise, the whole or a portion of his or her lands in one or in two or more lots, the person or persons to whom the lands may be so transferred shall be entitled to receive from Government (if the lands are held khas), or from the farmer (if the lands are let in farm), the malikana to which the former proprietor was entitled on account of the land so transferred.

Persons to whom such lands may be so transferred will stand in the same predicament as the zamindars, independent talukdars or other actual proprietors of land mentioned in the fourth Article, whose lands are held khas, or have been let in farm, in consequence of their refusing to pay the assessment required of them under the before-mentioned Regulations for the decennial settlement; and the declarations contained in that Article are to be held applicable to them.

Third.—In the event of a division being made of lands that are or may become the joint property of two or more persons, and which are or may be held khas or let in farm, the proprietors of the several shares will stand in the same predicament, with regard to their respective shares as the zamindars, independent talukdars and other actual proprietors of land specified in the fourth Article, whose lands have been let in farm or are held khas in consequence of their having refused to pay the assessment required of them under the before-mentioned Regulations for the decennial settlement; and the declarations contained in that Article are to be considered applicable to them.

ADAPTED

(1st May, 1793.)

A Regulation for abolishing the Courts of Mal Adalat or Revenue Courts, and transferring the trial of the suits which were cognizable in those Courts to the Courts of Diwani Adalat ; and prescribing Rules for the conduct of the Board of Revenue and the Collectors.

1.- In ¹ * * * * * Bengal the greater Preamble.
part of the materials required for the numerous and valuable manufactures, and most of the other principal articles of export, are the produce of the lands : it follows that the commerce, and consequently the wealth of the country, must increase in proportion to the extension of its agriculture.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was passed for the former Province of Bengal—see paragraph 1 of the Preamble.

It has been declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), section 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), section 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the district of Jalpaiguri.

PARTIAL REPEAL.—So much of this Regulation as requires the appointment of diwans in the different districts, or defines the duties of the diwans, or relates in any other manner, directly or indirectly, to those offices, was repealed by Bengal Regulation XV of 1813. Specific references in the Regulation to diwans were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), and have been omitted.

²The words "the British territories in" were omitted by para. 3 and the Sixth Sch. of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

[Ben. Reg. II

But it is not for commercial purposes alone that the encouragement of agriculture is essential to the welfare of these provinces.

The Hindus, who form the body of the people, are compelled, by the dictates of religion, to depend solely upon the produce of the lands for subsistence ; and the generality of such of the lower orders of the natives as are not of that persuasion are, from habit or necessity, in a similar predicament.

The extensive failure or destruction of the crops that occasionally arises from drought or inundation is in consequence invariably followed by famine, the ravages of which are felt chiefly by the cultivators of the soil and the manufacturers, from whose labours the country derives both its subsistence and wealth.

Experience having evinced that adequate supplies of grain are not obtainable from abroad in seasons of scarcity, the country must necessarily continue subject to these calamities until the proprietors and cultivators of the lands shall have the means of increasing the number of the reservoirs, embankments and other artificial works, by which, to a great degree, the untimely cessation of the periodical rains may be provided against, and the lands protected from, inundation ; and as a necessary consequence the stock of grain in the country at large shall always be sufficient to supply those occasional, but less extensive, deficiencies in the annual produce which may be expected to occur notwithstanding the adoption of the above precautions to obviate them.

To effect these improvements in agriculture, which must necessarily be followed by the increase of every article of produce, has accordingly been one of the primary objects to which the attention of the ¹[Government] has been directed in its arrangements for the internal Government of these provinces.

¹Substituted for the words " British Administration " by para. 3 and the Sixth Sch. of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(Sec. 1.)

As being the two fundamental measures essential to the attainment of it, the property in the soil has been declared to be vested in the landholders, and the revenue payable to Government from each estate has been fixed for ever.

These measures have at once rendered it the interest of the proprietors to improve their estates, and given them the means of raising the funds necessary for that purpose.

The property in the soil was never before formally declared to be vested in the landholders, nor were they allowed to transfer such rights as they did possess, or raise money upon the credit of their tenures, without the previous sanction of Government.

With respect to the public demand upon each estate, it was liable to annual or frequent variation at the discretion of Government.

The amount of it was fixed upon an estimate formed by the public officers of the aggregate of the rents payable by the rai-yats or tenants for each bigha of land in cultivation, of which, after deducting the expenses of collection, ten-elevenths were usually considered as the right of the public and the remainder the share of the landholder.

Refusal to pay the sum required of him was followed by his removal from the management of his lands, and the public dues were either let in farm or collected by an officer of Government, and the above-mentioned share of the landholder, or such sum as special custom, or the orders of Government, might have fixed, was paid to him by the farmer or from the public treasury.

When the extension of cultivation was productive only of a heavier assessment, and even the possession of the property was uncertain, the hereditary landholder had little inducement to improve his estate, and moneyed men had no encouragement to embark their capital in the purchase or improvement of land, whilst not only the profit, but the security for the capital itself, was so precarious.

The same causes, therefore, which prevented the improvement of land depreciated its value.

(Sec. I.)

Further measures, however, are essential to the attainment of the important object above stated.

All questions between Government and the landholders respecting the assessment and collection of the public revenue, and disputed claims between the latter and their *raiya*ts, or other persons concerned in the collection of their rents, have hitherto been cognizable in the Courts of Mal Adalat or Revenue Courts.

The Collectors of the Revenue preside in these Courts as Judges, and an appeal lies from their decision to the Board of Revenue, and from the decrees of that Board to the Governor General in council¹ in the department of Revenue.

The proprietors can never consider the privileges which have been conferred upon them as secure, whilst the Revenue-officers are vested with these judicial powers.

Exclusive of the objections arising to these Courts from their irregular, summary, and often ex parte proceedings, and from the Collectors being obliged to suspend the exercise of their judicial functions whenever they interfere with their financial duties, it is obvious that, if the Regulations for assessing and collecting the public revenue are infringed, the Revenue-officers themselves must be the aggressors, and that individuals who have been wronged by them in one capacity can never hope to obtain redress from them in another.

Their financial occupations equally disqualify them for administering the laws between the proprietors of land and their tenants.

Other security, therefore, must be given to landed property and to the rights attached to it before the desired improvements in agriculture can be expected to be effected.

¹See the last paragraph of foot-note 1 on page 3, ante.

(Sec. 2.)

Government must divest itself of the power of infringing, in its executive capacity, the rights and privileges which, as exercising the legislative authority, it has conferred on the landholders.

¹The Revenue-officers must be deprived of their judicial powers.

All financial claims of the public, when disputed under the Regulations, must be subjected to the cognizance of Courts of Judicature, superintended by Judges who, from their official situations and the nature of their trusts, shall not only be wholly uninterested in the result of their decisions, but bound to decide impartially between the public and the proprietors of land, and also between the latter and their tenants.

The Collectors of the Revenue must not only be divested of the power of deciding upon their own acts, but rendered amenable for them to the Courts of Judicature, and collect the public dues subject to a personal prosecution for every exaction exceeding the amount which they are authorized to demand on behalf of the public, and for every deviation from the Regulations prescribed for the collection of it.

No power will then exist in the country by which the rights vested in the landholders by the Regulations can be infringed or the value of landed property affected.

Land must, in consequence, become the most desirable of all property, and the industry of the people will be directed to those improvements in agriculture which are as essential to their own welfare as to the prosperity of the State.

The following rules, being the rules passed for the guidance of the Collectors and the Board of Revenue, on the 8th June, 1787, and the 25th April, 1788, with alterations adapted to the principles above stated, have been accordingly enacted.

The above exemption, however, is not meant to include [the mālikāna lands in Bihar, or] the nānkār, khamar, nij-jot and other private lands of the zamindars and independent talukdars or other actual proprietors of land in ⁴[West Bengal] and Midnapore, regarding which the following rules have been prescribed.

The above consolidation of the mālguzāri and private lands is also to be made in the taluks continued under the proprietors on whom they have hitherto been dependent; not, however, with a view of increasing the rents of the talukdars, but in order to make the whole of the lands composing their taluks answerable for their proportion of the public assessment allotted thereon.

prevent undue exactions from talukdars.

¹51. The following rules are prescribed to prevent undue exaction from the dependent talukdars :—

First.—No zamindar or other actual proprietor of land shall demand an increase from the talukdars dependent on him although he should himself be subject to the payment of an increase of jama to Government ; except upon proof that he is entitled so to do, either by the special custom of the district, or by the conditions under which the talukdar holds his tenure ; or that the talukdar by receiving abatements from his jama, has subjected himself to the payment of the increase demanded and that the lands are capable of affording it.

Second.—If, in any instance, it be proved that a zamindar or other actual proprietor of land exacts more from a talukdar than he has a right to, the Court shall adjudge him to pay a penalty of double the amount of such exaction, with all costs of suit, to the party injured.

Power of actual proprietors to let remaining lands as
proper.

¹52. The zamindar or other actual proprietor of land is to let the remaining lands of his zamindari or estate, under the prescribed restrictions, in whatever manner he may think proper ; but every engagement contracted with under-farmers shall be specific as to the amount and conditions of it ; and all sums received by any actual proprietor of land or any farmer of land, of whatever description, over and above what is specified in the engagements of the persons paying the same, shall be considered as extorted, and be repaid with a penalty of double the amount. The restrictions prescribed and referred to in this section are the following :

Lands so let not to be taken
amilnama.

¹53. No person contracting with a zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor, or employed by him in the management of the collections, shall be authorized to take charge of the lands or collections without an amilnama, or written commission, signed by such zamindar, independent talukdar or other actual proprietor.

Process to prevent imposition on *raiya*s under denomination of
mathat, etc.

¹54. The impositions upon the *raiya*s, under the denomination of abwab, mathat and other appellations, from their number and uncertainty having become intricate to adjust, and a source of oppression to the *raiya*s, all proprietors of land and dependent talukdars shall revise the same, in concert with the *raiya*s, and consolidate the whole with the assal into one specific sum.

¹Sections 51 to 55, 64 and 65 are repealed by sec. 2(1) of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (VIII of 1885), in the whole of the former Province of Bengal, except the town of Calcutta, the Division of Orissa and the Scheduled Districts. ⁴55. No actual proprietor of land and dependent talukdar or farmer of land, of whatever description, shall impose any new abwab or mathat upon the raiyats under any pretence whatever.

Proprietors and farmers of land prohibited imposing new abwab or mathat on raiyats.

Every exaction of this nature shall be punished by a penalty equal to three times the amount imposed; and if, at any future period, it be discovered that new abwab or mathat have been imposed, the person imposing the same shall be liable to this penalty for the entire period of such impositions.

(1st May, 1793.)

A Regulation for removing certain restrictions to the operation of the Hindu and Muhammadan laws with regard to the inheritance of landed property subject to the payment of revenue to Government.

Preamble.

1. A custom, originating in consideration of financial convenience, was established in these Provinces under the Native Administrations, according to which some of the most extensive zamindaris are not liable to division.

Upon the death of the proprietor of one of these estates it devolves entire to the eldest son, or next heir of the deceased, to the exclusion of all other sons or relations.

This custom is repugnant both to the Hindu and Muhammadan laws, which annexed to primogeniture no exclusive right of succession to landed property, and consequently subversive of the rights of those individuals who would be entitled to a share of the estates in question were the established laws of inheritance allowed to operate with regard to them as well as all other estates.

It likewise tends to prevent the general improvement of the country, from the proprietors of these large estates not having the means, or being unable to bestow the attention, requisite for bringing into cultivation the extensive tracts of waste land comprised in them.

For the above reasons, and as the limitation of the public demand upon the estates of individuals as they now exist, and the rules prescribed for apportioning the amount of it on the several shares of any estates which may be divided, obviate the objections and inconveniences that might have arisen from such divisions when the public demand was liable to annual or frequent variation, the Governor General in Council has enacted the following rules :

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was declared by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled District.

It has been declared by notification under the Schedule District Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district.

ADAPTED

A Regulation for re-enacting, with modifications, the rules passed by the Governor General in Council on the 1st December, 1790, for trying the validity of the titles of persons holding, or claiming a right to hold, lands exempted from the payment of revenue to Government, under grants not being of the description of those termed badshahi or royal; and for determining the amount of the annual assessment to be imposed on lands so held, which may be adjudged or become liable to the payment of public revenue.

1. By the ancient law of the country the ruling power is entitled to a certain proportion of the produce of every bigha of land (demandable in money or kind, according to local custom), unless it transfers its right thereto for a term or in perpetuity, or limits the public demand upon the whole of the lands belonging to an individual, leaving him to appropriate to his own use the difference between the value of such proportion of the produce and the sum payable to the public, whilst he continues to discharge the latter. Preamble.

As a necessary consequence of this law, if a zamindar made a grant of any part of his lands to be held exempt from the payment of revenue, it was considered void, from being an alienation of the dues of Government without its sanction.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was declared by the Cuttack Land-revenue Regulation, 1805 (XII of 1805), secs. 17 and 24, to be in force, with modifications, in the Parganas of Pataspur and Bograi in the district of Midnapore in West Bengal.

It was afterwards declared by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

The Regulation has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district.

Had the validity of such grants been admitted, it is obvious that the revenue of Government would have been liable to gradual diminution.

Previous, however, to the Company's accession to the Diwani, numerous grants of this description were made, not only by the zamindars, but by the officers of Government appointed to the temporary superintendence of the collection of the revenue, under the pretext that the produce of the lands was to be applied to religious or charitable uses.

Of these grants some were applied to the purposes for which they were professed to have been made, but in general they were given for the personal advantage of the grantee, or with a view to the clandestine appropriation of the produce to the use of the grantor, or sold to supply his private exigencies.

In conformity to the principles which prevailed under the Native Administration, the British Government have at various times declared all grants for holding land exempt from the payment of revenue made since the date of the Company's accession to the Diwani, without their sanction, illegal and void.

Their lenity, however, induced them to adopt it as a principle that grants of this description made previous to the date of the Diwani, and provided the grantees had obtained possession, should be held valid to the extent of the intentions of the grantor, as ascertainable from the terms of the writings by which the grants might have been made, or from their nature and denomination.

But no complete register of these exempted lands having been formed upon the Company's accession to the Diwani, nor subsequent to that period, many zamindars, as well as the temporary farmers of the public revenue, and the officers of Government to whom the collection of the revenue in the different districts has been occasionally committed, in consequence of the zamindars refusing to pay the revenue demanded of them, have availed themselves of the abovementioned rule of limitation to make grants of extensive tracts of land to others, or in the names of their relations or dependents, for their own use, dating the deeds for these alienations previous to the Company's accession to the Diwani, or procuring them to be registered in the zamindari records as having been alienated prior to that period.

Others have made such alienations without antedating the grants, and left it to the grantee to maintain himself in possession by such means as circumstances might afford, in the event of his title being brought into question.

The Governor General in Council¹ deeming it incumbent on him to recover the public dues thus alienated in opposition to the ancient and existing laws of the country, as well as to resume the revenue of all lands the grants for which might expire ; and as the proprietors of estates were not entitled to collect such of the public dues from the lands included in their estates, as Government had judged it advisable to transfer to individuals, or to resume those which had been alienated by themselves or others, the amount in both cases being excluded from the assets on which the settlement was to be concluded, it was made a rule at the time of forming the decennial settlement, and which has been re-enacted by section 36, Regulation VIII, 1793,² that the jama assessed upon the estates of individuals was to be considered as exclusive and independent of all existing lakhiraj lands, whether exempted from the khiraj or public revenue, with or without due authority ; and by the third clause of the seventh article of the Proclamation contained in Regulation 1, 1793,³ which specifies the conditions under which Government declared the decennial settlement permanent, it is expressly stipulated that the Governor General in Council¹ will impose such assessment as he may deem equitable on all lands at present alienated and paying no public revenue, which have been or may be proved to be held under illegal or invalid titles.

The Governor General in council,¹ however, at the same time that he is desirous of recovering the public dues from lands which have been illegally alienated, is equally solicitous that persons holding such grants under titles that are declared valid should be secured in the possession and enjoyment of their property.

It is likewise his wish that the recovery of the dues of Government from those lands which have been illegally alienated previous to the 1st December, 1790, should be attended with as little distress as possible to the possessors ; and, to obviate all injustice or extortion in the inquiry into the titles of persons holding exempted lands, he has further resolved that the claims of the public on their lands (provided they register the grants as required in this Regulation) shall be tried in the Courts of Judicature, that no such exempted lands may be subjected to the payment of revenue until the titles of the proprietor shall have been adjudged invalid by a final judicial decree.

Upon the above grounds, and with a view to facilitate the recovery of the public dues from lands held exempted under invalid grants, as well as to prevent any similar alienations being hereafter made, to the prejudice of the security of the public revenue which has been assessed in perpetuity upon the estates of individuals ; and further, that Government and the officers employed in the collection of the public revenue may at all times have in their possession a correct register of the lands in the several zilas held exempt from the payment of revenue, the following rules, containing the rules passed on the 1st December, 1790, with modifications, have been enacted :

2. First.—All grants for holding land exempt from the payment of revenue made previous to the 12th August, 1765, the date of the Company's accession to the Diwani, by whatever authority, and whether by a writing or without a writing, shall be deemed valid, provided the grantee actually and bona fide obtained possession of the land so granted previous to the date abovementioned, and the land shall not have been subsequently rendered subject to the payment of revenue by the officers or the orders of Government.

If it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Court, that the grantee did not obtain possession of the land so granted previous to the 12th August, 1765, or that he did obtain possession of it prior to that date but that, it has been since subjected to the payment of revenue by the officers or the orders of Government, the grant shall not be deemed valid.

Second.—In the event, however, of a claim being preferred by any person to hold land exempt from the payment of revenue, under a grant made previous to the date of the Company's accession to the Diwani, and of it being proved, to the satisfaction of the Court in which the suit may be instituted in the first instance, or to which it may be appealed, that the grantee held the land exempt from the payment of revenue previous to that date, but that it was subjected to the payment of revenue posterior thereto by an officer of Government, and the Court shall entertain doubts as to the competency of such officer, under the powers vested in him, to subject the lands to the payment of revenue, the Court shall suspend its judgment and report the circumstances to the ¹[State] Government, to whom a power is reserved of determining whether such officer was or was not competent to subject the land to the payment of revenue; and, upon receiving the determination of the ¹[State] Government, the Court is to decide accordingly.

No such claim, however, to hold exempt from the payment of revenue land that may have been subjected to the payment of revenue for the twelve years preceding the date on which the claim may be instituted shall be heard by any Zila or City Court unless the claimant can show good and sufficient cause for not having preferred the claim to a ²competent jurisdiction within the twelve years ³* *.

No persons, not being original grantees, entitled to hold lands free of revenue.

Third.—But no part of the two preceding clauses is to be construed to empower the Courts to adjudge any person, not being the original grantee, entitled to hold exempt from the payment of revenue land now subject to the payment of revenue, under a grant made previous to the Company's accession to the Diwani, the writing for which may expressly specify it to have been given for the life of the grantee only : or supposing no such specification to have been made in the writing, or the writing not to be forthcoming or no writing to have been executed, where the grant, from the nature and denomination of it, shall be proved to be a life-tenure only according to the ancient usages of the country.

Nor also heirs of present possessors.

Fourth.—Nor to entitle the heirs of any person now holding land exempt from the payment of public revenue under a grant made previous to the Diwani, to succeed to and hold such land exempt from the payment of revenue upon the demise of the present possessor, where the writing for such grant may expressly specify it to have been given, for the life of the grantee only ; or supposing no such specification to have been made in the writing, or the writing not to be forthcoming, or no writing to have been executed, where, from the nature and denomination of the grant, it shall be proved to be a life-tenure only, according to the ancient usages of the country.

Nor to entitle the heir to any such person to hold the lands exempt from the payment of revenue after his demise, supposing the writing for the grant not to specify whether it was to be considered hereditary or otherwise ; unless it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Court, that the grant, from the nature and denomination of it, is hereditary according to the ancient usages of the country.

But upon the demise of the present possessor of any such grant, which may be adjudged not hereditary under this clause, if it shall appear that one or more successions, in virtue of whatever right, shall have taken place before the date of the Diwani, the lands shall not be subjected to the payment of Fifth.—The present possessors of lands now exempt from the payment of revenue, under such life-grants made previous to the Diwani, and declared by the preceding clause not to be hereditary, are prohibited from selling or otherwise transferring them, or mortgaging the revenue of them for a longer period than their own lives, and all such transfers and mortgages are declared illegal and void.

Present possessors prohibited from transferring or mortgaging grants.

It is to be understood, however, that if any such life-grants shall have been confirmed as hereditary tenures by Government, or by the officers of Government empowered so to confirm them, they are not to be liable to the payment of revenue on the death of the present possessors, and are to be excepted from the other rules contained in this and the preceding clause.

If doubts shall arise in any Court as to the competency of the authority of any officer of Government to confirm any such life-grant as hereditary, the Court is to suspend its judgment and report the circumstances to the ¹[State] Government, to whom a power is reserved of determining finally whether such officer possessed competent authority to confirm the grant as hereditary, or not and the Court, upon receiving the determination of the ¹[State] Government is to decide accordingly.

3. First.—All grants for holding land exempt from the payment of revenue, which may have been made since the 12th August, 1765, and previous to the 1st December, 1790, corresponding with the 18th Aghan, 1197, ²[West Bengal] era, [the 10th Aghan, 1198, Fasli], the 18th Aghan, 1198, Wilayati, by any other authority than that of Government, and which may not have been confirmed by Government, or by any officer empowered to confirm them, are declared invalid.

Disputes

The grantees, or the present possessors, until dispossessed by a decree of the Diwani Adalat, are to be considered as the proprietors of the lands, with the same right of property therein as is declared to be vested in proprietors of estates or dependent taluks (according as the land may exceed or be less than one hundred bighas as specified in sections 6, 7¹* *), subject to the payment of revenue, and they are to execute engagements for the revenue with which their lands may be declared chargeable, either to Government, or to the proprietor or farmer of the estate in which the lands may be situated, or to the officer of Government (according as the revenue of the estate in which the land may be situated may be payable by the proprietor or a farmer, or collected khas), under the rules for the decennial settlement.

If by the decision of the Diwani Adalat the proprietary right in the land shall be transferred, the person succeeding thereto is, in like manner, to be responsible for the payment of the revenue assessed or chargeable thereon.

5. By continuing the proprietary right in the land to the grantee or possessor, in the cases specified in the preceding section, instead of dispossessing him of the land altogether, agreeably to former usage, and assessing the land in the mode prescribed in the two following sections, a liberal provision will be left to him.

SHORT TITLE GIVEN	Act I of 1903.
MODIFIED BY	{ Ben. Regn. XIII of 1825. Ben. Regn. XIV of 1825.
REPEALED IN PART	{ Ben. Regn. II of 1819. Act XVI of 1874. Ben. Act VII of 1876.
REPEALED IN PART AND AMENDED	Act I of 1903.
ADAPTED	(a) The Government of India (Adap- tation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937. (b) The Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(1st May, 1793.)

A. Regulation for re-enacting, with modification, the rules passed on the 23rd April, 1788, and subsequent dates, for trying the validity or the titles of persons holding or claiming a right to hold altamgha, Jagir and other lands exempt from the payment of public revenue, under grants termed badshahi or royal, and for determining when certain grants of that description shall be considered to have expired; and for fixing the amount of the public revenue to be assessed upon the lands the grants for which may expire or be adjudged invalid.

1. By the ancient law of the country the ruling power is entitled to a certain proportion of the produce of every bigha of land, unless it transfers its right thereto for a term or in perpetuity.

Preamble.

As a necessary consequence of this law every grant or alienation of Government's proportion of the produce of lands without its sanction was considered null and void.

Had the validity of such grants or alienation been admitted it is obvious that the public revenue would have been liable to gradual diminution.

Under the Native Government grants were occasionally made of the Government's share of the produce of lands, for the support of the families of persons who had performed public services, for religious or charitable purposes, for maintaining troops and for other services.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was declared, by the Cuttack Land-revenue Regulation, 1805 XII of 1805), sec. 25, to be in force, with modifications, in the Parganas of Pataspur and Bograi in the district of Midnapore in West Bengal.

The Regulation was afterwards declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled District.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district.

[Ben. Reg. XXXVII

The British Government continued to the grantees or their heirs such of these grants as were hereditary, and were made before the date of the Company's accession to the Diwani, provided the grantees or their heirs had obtained possession previous to that date ; but those grants which were for life only have been invariably considered as resumable on the death of the grantees.

No complete register of these grants having been formed on the Company's accession to the Diwani, nor subsequent to that period, many persons have retained possession of lands under fabricated or ante-dated grants, or have succeeded to life-grants on the demise of the original grantee or former possessor, without the sanction of Government.

The Governor General in Council, deeming it incumbent on him to resume the public dues from lands held under invalid tenures, as well as the revenue of all lands the grants for which might expire, and as the proprietors of estates were not entitled to collect such of the public dues from the lands included in their estates as Government had judged it advisable to transfer to individuals, or to resume those which had been alienated or were appropriated without authority, the amount of the revenue of the lands having in both cases been excluded from the assets on which the settlement was to be concluded, it was made a rule at the time of forming the decennial settlement, and which has been re-enacted by section 36, Regulation VIII, 1793¹, that the jama assessed upon the estates of individuals was to be considered as exclusive and independent of all existing lakhrāj lands, whether exempted from the khirāj or public revenue, with or without due authority ;

¹The Bengal Decennial Settlement Regulation, 1793.

and by the third clause of the seventh article of the Proclamation contained in Regulation 1, 1793¹, which specifies the conditions under which Government declared the decennial settlement permanent, it is expressly stipulated that the Governor General in Council will impose such assessment as he may deem equitable on all lands at present alienated and paying no public revenue which have been or may be proved to be held under illegal or invalid titles.

The Governor General in Council however, at the same time that he is desirous of recovering the public dues from lands held under invalid tenures, is equally solicitous that persons holding lands under grants that are declared valid should be secured in the quiet possession and enjoyment of them.

With this view, and to obviate all injustice or extortion in the inquiry into the titles of persons possessing lands under such grants, he has resolved that all claims of the public for the resumption of such grants (provided the grantees or persons in possession register their grants as required in this Regulation) shall be tried in the Courts of Judicature, that no such grants may be resumed until the title of the grantee or present possessor shall have been adjudged invalid by a final judicial decree.

Upon the above grounds, and with a view to facilitate the resumption of invalid grants, as well as to prevent any grants being hereafter made without the authority of Government, and further that Government and its officers may at all times have in their possession a correct register of the lands in the several zilas held exempt from the payment of revenue under badshahi grants, the following rules, containing the rules passed on the 23rd April, 1788, and subsequent dates, with modifications, have been enacted.

If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the grantee did not obtain possession of the land so granted previous to the 12th August, 1765, or that he did obtain possession of it prior to that date, but that it has been since resumed by the officers or the orders of Government, the grant shall not be deemed valid.

Second.—In the event, however, of a claim being preferred by any person to hold land exempt from the payment of revenue, under a badshahi grant made previous to the date of the Company's accession to the Diwani, and on it being proved to the satisfaction of the Court in which the suit may be instituted in the first instance, or to which it may be appealed, that the grantee held the land exempt from the payment of revenue, but that it was subjected to the payment of revenue posterior thereto by an officer of Government, and the Court shall entertain doubts as to the competency of such officer, under the powers vested in him, to resume the grant and subject the lands to the payment of revenue, the Court shall suspend its judgment and report the circumstances to the ¹[State] Government, to whom a power is reserved of determining whether such officer was or was not competent to resume the grant; and, upon receiving the determination of the ¹[State] Government, the court is to decide accordingly.

No such claim, however, to hold exempt from the payment of revenue, land that may have been subjected to the payment of revenue for the twelve years preceding the date on which the claim may be instituted, shall be heard by any Zila or City Court, unless the claimant can show good and sufficient cause for not having preferred the claim to a competent authority within the twelve years * * *

Questions regarding proprietary right to be determined in Diwani Adalat.

Every dispute or claim regarding the zamindari or proprietary right in lands included in any grant is to be considered as a matter of a private nature between the contending parties, and is to be determined in the Diwani Adalat.

Any person having a claim to hold lands paying revenue exempt from the payment of revenue under a badshahi grant must institute his claim against Government, who alone can be the defendant in such suits, in the Diwani Adalat of the zila, in the same manner as in cases where individuals may claim a right to hold lands paying revenue exempt from the payment of revenue under grants not of the description of those termed badshahi, in virtue of Regulation XIX, 1793⁴.

Bengal Regulation X of 1800

(The Bengal Inheritance Regulation, 1800.)¹

SHORT TITLE GIVEN

... Act V of 1897.

(11th December, 1800.)

A Regulation for preventing the division of landed estates in the Jungle Mahals of the Zila of Midnapore and other Districts.

1. By Regulation XI, 1793¹, the estates of proprietors of land dying intestate are declared liable to be divided among the heirs of the deceased agreeably to the Hindu or Muhammadan laws.

Preamble.

A custom, however, having been found to prevail in the jungle mahals of Midnapore and other districts, by which the succession to landed estates invariably devolves to a single heir without the division of the property, and this custom having been long established, and being founded in certain circumstances of local convenience which still exist, the Governor-General in Council has enacted the following rules to be in force in the Provinces of Bengal, (Bihar and Orissa) from the date of its promulgation.

2. Regulation XI, 1793², shall not be considered to supersede or affect any established usage which may have obtained in the jungle mahals of Midnapore and other districts, by which the succession to landed estates, the proprietor of which may die intestate has hitherto been considered to devolve to a single heir, to the exclusion of the other heirs of the deceased.

Regulation XI, 1793, not to operate in jungle mahals of Midnapore and other districts.

In the mahals in question the local custom of the country shall be continued in full force as heretofore, and the Courts of Justice be guided by it in the decision of all claims which may come before them to the inheritance of landed property situated in those mahals.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal (see sec. 1), and was extended to the Parganas of Pataspur and Bograi in the district of Midnapore in West Bengal by the Cuttack Land-revenue Regulation, 1805 (XII of 1805), sec. 36.

8. Section 10, Regulation 1, 1793³, prescribes the general rule and principle for the allotment of the fixed assessment upon all divisions of estates, whether publicly sold or transferred by the private act of the proprietors, namely, that the assessment upon the portion of the estate to be separated shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the fixed assessment upon the whole estate may bear to its actual produce.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation has been declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

of 1801.]

(Sec. 8.)

This rule is to be strictly observed in all cases, whether of public sale or private transfer, or of division between sharers, heirs or joint proprietors of whatever description;

and it is hereby explained that by the term "actual produce" is to be understood the neat annual rent, or other neat produce receivable by the proprietor, after deducting from the gross rent, or other gross produce, the actual expense of collection and other usual charges of management, inclusive of pulbandi or the expense of embankments, and similar incidental expenses, where such may be paid by the proprietor from his gross receipts; but exclusive of his malikana or proprietary income, and all other personal appropriations of the gross produce of his estate, as such can have no claim to consideration in determining the neat produce for an equal division of landed property, or for the allotment of the public assessment thereto in conformity to the prescribed rule.

"Actual produce" defined.

But the above Regulation further provides that the produce to which the general rule of proportion is to be applied shall be ascertained in the mode that is or may be prescribed by the ¹[Central Government] ²* * *

If is hereby enacted that whenever the Collector or other public officer, to whom the allotment of the assessment upon the portion of an estate may be committed, shall have reason to suspect the accuracy of the village-accounts produced by a patwari, ³* * * .

Procedure of officer charged with allotment of assessment of portion of estate, should he doubt accuracy of patwari accounts, or they be not forthcoming.

or if such accounts shall be found to have been fabricated or altered, or not to be the true accounts, ⁴* * * ;

or if in any case the true village-accounts of the lands, rents, receipts and disbursements may not be forthcoming, but the Collector or other officer, under the powers vested in him ⁵* * * shall have obtained satisfactory accounts for the three past years of the lands and rents of the entire zamindari, taluk or other estate with a specification of the mahal or mahals proposed to be separately assessed, ¹These words were substituted for the words "Governor General in Council" by paragraph 4(I) of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

²The words and figures "and the patwari accounts furnished in pursuance of clause Fourth of section 62, Regulation 8, 1793, for the allotment of the public revenue agreeably to the principles laid down in Regulation 1, 1793, having in many instances proved fallacious or unsatisfactory, and in some instances not being procurable by the officers of Government," which were repealed by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), are omitted.

³The words and figures "in pursuance of clause Fourth of section 62, Regulation 8, 1793, or of any other Regulation," which were repealed by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), are omitted.

⁵The words and figures "by clause First of section 29, Regulation 7, 1793, or any other Regulation," which were repealed by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891), are omitted.

he shall adjust the assessment upon such mahal or mahals, under the general rule of proportion, according to the average neat produce (as above explained) ascertainable from the general accounts of the estate so obtained, without further regard to the village-accounts than may appear to him proper, with a view to compare and check the other accounts :

Provided, however, that in all cases the Collector or other officer shall adopt every authorized measure to obtain the most accurate accounts procurable, and shall fully satisfy himself that the accounts from which he may compute the neat produce of an estate to be divided and distinctly assessed are sufficiently accurate to prevent any risk of loss to Government from the proposed allotment of the assessment ; without evidence of which no distinct assessment is to be proposed by any Collector or approved by the the Board of Revenue :

Provided further that nothing in this Regulation shall be understood to authorize the Collectors to fix the amount of the assessment to be allotted upon the portion of an estate, whether publicly or privately disposed of, without the sanction of the Board of Revenue ¹* * *

It is further hereby declared that the Collectors are generally empowered to cause the personal attendance of any landholder or other inhabitant within their respective jurisdictions, when the attendance of such person may be indispensably necessary for the purpose of any authorized public inquiry, or to enable them to perform any part of their public duty, under the Regulations or instructions of the Board of Revenue.

But no Collector shall cause the personal attendance of any landholder or other person who may appoint an agent duly authorized, to attend for him if the attendance of the agent so appointed shall be sufficient for the purpose required.

Not to enforce personal attendance of principal if that of agent will suffice.

Any infringement of this rule will subject the Collectors to a prosecution for damages in the Civil Courts ; and, whenever they may have occasion to exercise the power now declared to be vested in them, they are to issue regular summonses, under their official seals and signatures, specifying the name, designation and residence of the party summoned, and the purpose or purposes for which his attendance is required.

the whole or any portion of their respective estates : but by section 10 of the same Regulation it is required that all such transfers be notified to the Collector of the zila; that the fixed jama assessed upon the whole estate may be apportioned on the several shares in the manner therein prescribed; that the names of the proprietors of each share and the jama assessed thereon may be entered upon the public registers and that separate engagements for the payment of the jama assessed upon each share may be executed by the proprietors, who are thenceforward to be considered separate proprietors of distinct estates; but until such notification and separation shall have been made the whole of the estate is declared responsible to Government for the discharge of the fixed jama assessed upon it, in the same manner as if no transfer had taken place.

Transfer of proprietary right in portions of estates in certain cases declared invalid, as far as respects rights of Government.

If, therefore, any zamindar shall have disposed of his proprietary rights in any portion of his zamindari subsequently to the promulgation of the Regulation above mentioned, whether under the denomination of an independent taluk or otherwise, and the talukdar or other person to whom the portion of an estate may have been so transferred shall have omitted to obtain a separate allotment of the public assessment thereon in the mode prescribed by the regulations, such transfer, as far as respects the rights of Government, must be considered altogether invalid; and if the land so privately transferred, but not separately assessed, should have been since, or shall be hereafter, included in any public sale for arrears of revenue, the illicit and imperfect private transfer must be deemed to have been altogether done away.

In such cases the lands transferred, until publicly registered and separately assessed, form part of an undivided estate; and as such are liable to be sold for any arrear of revenue which may be due from any part of the estate :

Section not to apply to dependent tenures.

Provided, however, that nothing in this section be considered applicable to dependent taluks, or other tenures dependent on the estate to which they are attached, and from which, by their title deeds or otherwise, they are not entitled to be separated as a distinct estate.* * *

The words and figures "section 6, Regulation 4, 1793, authorizes and confirms such tenures, subject to the restrictions contained in sections 2 and 5 of that Regulation with the explanation of the latter in section 7. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the grantee did not obtain possession of the land so granted, or did not hold it exempt from the payment of revenue previously to the date above specified, or that he did obtain possession of it prior to that date but that it has been since subjected to the payment of revenue by the officers or the orders of Government, the grant shall not be deemed valid.

Nor to entitle the heirs to any such person to hold the lands exempt from the payment of revenue after his demise, supposing the writing for the grant not to specify whether it was to be considered hereditary or otherwise, unless it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Court, that the grant, from the nature and denomination of it, is hereditary, according to the ancient usages of the country.

But upon the demise of the present possessor of any such grant which may be adjudged not hereditary under this clause, if it shall appear that one or more successions, in virtue of whatever right, shall have taken place before the 14th day of October, 1803, the lands shall not be subjected to the payment of revenue under the decree without the sanction of the ¹[State Government] to whom a copy of the proceedings and decree of the Court is to be transmitted, and to whom is reserved a power of declaring the lands subject to the payment of revenue, or not, as may appear to ²[it] proper.

1. Whereas it has been deemed expedient to remove doubts which have arisen on the construction of section 2, Regulation V, 1812, ²[and to rescind sections 3 and 4 of Regulation XLIV, 1793, and sections 3 and 4 of Regulation L, 1795,]³ the following rules have been enacted, to be in force from the promulgation of them in the Provinces of Bengal, [Bihar, Orissa (exclusive of the district of Cuttack)] and the parganas formerly dependent on that district but now annexed to the zila of Midnapore ⁴* *.

Provided, however, that nothing contained in the former or present Regulation shall be construed to empower persons holding a restricted interest in estates, whether for life or for other limited period, or subject to control or restriction in the use or disposal of the property, to grant leases extending beyond the term of their own interest in the property, or exceeding their power or authority over it.

The extension of the repeal to Scheduled Districts depends upon the terms of notifications extending the Act of 1885 to such districts. Under the terms of the notification extending the Act of 1885 to the Jalpaiguri district, the repeal has taken effect in that district.

(12th February 1819.)

A regulation for modifying the provisions contained in the existing Regulations, regarding the resumption of the revenue of lands held free of assessment under illegal or invalid tenures, and for defining the right of Government to the revenue of lands not included within the limits of estates for which a settlement has been made.

1. The rules contained in Regulations XIX² and XXXVII,³ 1793, relative to the resumption of the revenue of lands held free of assessment under illegal or invalid tenures, and the corresponding provisions enacted in subsequent years, having been found inadequate to secure the just rights of Government, have from time to time been partially repealed or modified.

Those rules; however, are still in force within several of the districts subordinate to this Presidency, and the Regulations by which they have in other districts been superseded appear to be in several respects defective.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the concluding paragraph of sec. 1.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district.

²The Bengal Revenue-free Lands (Non-Badshahi Grants) Regulation, 1793.

³The Bengal Revenue-free Lands (Badshahi Grants) Regulation, 1793.

Preamble.

It further appears to be necessary, in order to obviate all misapprehension on the part of the public officers, or of individuals, to declare generally the right of Government to assess all lands which, at the period of the decennial settlement, were not included within the limit of an estate for which a settlement was concluded with the owners, not being lands for which a distinct settlement may have been made since the above period, nor lands held free of assessment under a valid and legal title; and at the same time formally to renounce all claim on the part of Government to additional revenue from lands which were included within the limits of estates for which a permanent settlement has been concluded, at the period when such settlement was so concluded, whether on the plea of error or fraud, or on any pretext whatever, saving, of course, mahals expressly excluded from the operation of the settlement.

With the view, therefore, of establishing, on proper principles, one uniform course of proceeding in resuming the revenue of lands liable to assessment, so that the dues of Government may be secured without infringement of the just rights of individuals, the following rules have been enacted, to be in force from the date of their promulgation throughout the [territories] immediately subordinate to the Presidency of Fort William.

2. [Repeals.]—Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874).

3. First.—It is hereby declared and enacted that all lands which, at the period of the decennial settlement, were not included within the limits of any pargana, mauza, or other division of estates for which a settlement was concluded with the owners, not being lands for which, a distinct settlement may have been made since the period above referred to, nor lands held free of assessment under a valid and legal title of the nature specified in Regulations XIX² and XXXVII³, 1793, and in the corresponding Regulations subsequently enacted, are and shall be considered liable to assessment in the same manner as other unsettled mahals; and the revenue assessed on all such lands, whether exceeding one hundred bighas or otherwise, shall belong to ⁴[the Government]:

Lands not included in decennial settlement, etc., liable to assessment, except lands held free of assessment under valid title.

¹Substituted for the word "Provinces" by the para. 3 and the Sixth Schedule of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

³The Bengal Revenue-free Lands (Badshahi Grants) Regulation, 1793.

(Section 4.)

Provided, however, that nothing in the above rule shall be construed to affect the rights reserved to zamindars, talukdars, and other proprietors of estates with whom a permanent settlement has been concluded, to the exclusive enjoyment of the rent assessed on lands held on an invalid tenure, free of assessment, within the limits of their respective estates and taluks, and of which the extent may not exceed one hundred bighas if in ¹[West Bengal], [Bihar or Orissa] ²* * *

Proviso.

Second.—The foregoing principles shall be deemed applicable not only to tracts of lands such as are described to have been brought into cultivation in the Sundarbans, but to all chars and islands formed since the period of the decennial settlement, and generally to all lands gained by alluvion or dereliction since that period, whether from an introcession of the sea, an alteration in the course of rivers or the gradual accession of soil on their banks.

Same principle applicable to chars and alluvion lands

Third.—The same principle shall likewise be deemed applicable to all land which, though included at the period of the permanent settlement within the limits of taluks held by individuals under special pattas from the Collector, such as the patitabadi and jangalbari taluks in the districts of the 24-Parganas and Jessore, may not have been permanently assessed at the abovementioned period :

Also to lands included within particular taluks.

Provided, however, that in respect to such lands, if in the possession of the original patta-holder, or his legal representative, the conditions of the patta in regard to the assessment of the land included within the limits specified in that instrument shall be strictly maintained.

Proviso.

4. The several rules prescribed in Regulations XIX³ and XXXVII⁴ of 1793. ⁵* * * and XII of 1805⁵ for determining the validity of grants for holding lands exempt from the payment of public revenue, are hereby declared applicable to grants for holding lands under mukarrari or other tenures limiting the demand of ⁷[the Government] :

Application of existing rules to grants for holding lands under mukarrari or other tenures.
 Proviso.

Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the rules contained in Regulation VIII, 1793⁶, ¹Substituted for the word "Bengal" by para. 3(2) of the Indian Independence (Adaptation of Bengal and Punjab Acts) Order, 1948.

²The words "and fifty bighas if within the province of Benares," which were repealed by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), are omitted.

Notice to party.

Second.—The Collector, on receiving the authority of the Board of Revenue, shall call the party before him by a notice stating the demand of ²[the Government] on the lands, and requiring him to attend either in person or by vakil, within the period of one month, and to produce all sanads or other writings in virtue of which he may possess the lands, or under which they may have been, or may be, claimed to be held free of assessment, or at a fixed jama.

Or to his agent if accredited agent reside at sadar station.

Third.—If the persons whose lands it is proposed to assess have an accredited agent at the sadar station, with general powers to act for his principal, the notice to be issued under the preceding clause shall be tendered to such agent, to be communicated by him to his principal, and the agent's acknowledgment to be endorsed upon it shall be accepted as a sufficient service of it, if he desirous of giving such acknowledgment in preference to the notice being served on the person of his principal by a chaprasi or peon of the Collector.

Notice on principal to be served through nazir by single peon.

Fourth.—If the person, the revenue of whose lands it is proposed to resume, shall not have an accredited agent at the sadar station of the description above-mentioned, or if such agent shall decline receiving the notice for communication to his constituent, and the defendant be resident within the Collectorship, it shall be served on him through the nazir of the Collector by a single chaprasi or peon, who shall require the acknowledgment of the party to be endorsed upon it, or, if he be absent from his usual place of residence, the acknowledgment of his principal agent, or of any person acting for him during his absence.

If acknowledgment be refused, tender of notice sufficient service.

Sixth.—The Collector shall, in the notice summoning the party, warn him that, if he withhold any writings of the nature specified in the second clause of this section within the period prescribed, they will not afterwards be received unless he shall show good and sufficient cause for not producing them and shall assign such cause on his appearing before him.

6. First.—If the holder of such lands to whom a notice may have been issued as directed in the preceding section shall abscond, or is not after diligent search to be found, or shall shut himself up in any house or building, or retire to any place, so that the notice cannot be served upon him, the Collector or other officer exercising the power of Collector, on receiving the nazir's return to this effect, shall issue a proclamation, to be affixed in some conspicuous part of his cutcherry.

If notice cannot be served, proclamation to be issued.

The Collector or other officer exercising the power of Collector shall likewise order a copy of the proclamation and notice to be fixed up, with all practicable despatch, on the outer door of the house in which the holder of the lands may have usually dwelt, or in some conspicuous place in the chief village within, or in the neighbourhood of, the lands proposed to be assessed.

*A Regulation to declare the validity of certain tenures, and to define the relative rights of zamindars and patni talukdars; also to establish a process for the sale of such taluks in satisfaction of the zamindar's demand of rent² * * .

1. By the rules of the perpetual settlement proprietors of estates paying revenue to Government, that is, the individuals answerable to Government for the revenue then assessed on the different mahals, were declared to be entitled to make any arrangements for the leasing of their lands in taluk or otherwise, that they might deem most conducive to their interests. Preamble.

By the rules of Regulation XLIV, 1793³, however, all such arrangements were subjected to two limitations ; first, that the jama or rent should not be fixed for a period exceeding ten years ; and, secondly, that in case of a sale for Government arrears, such leases or arrangements should stand cancelled from the day of sale.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1879 (V of 1897).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation extends to the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the concluding paragraph of sec. 1.

²Words repealed by the Amending Act, 1897 (XII of 1891), are omitted.

³Reg. XLIV of 1793 was repealed by Act XXIX of 1871.

(Section 1.)

The provisions of section 2, Regulation XLIV, 1793¹, by which the period of all fixed engagements for rent was limited to ten years, have been rescinded by section 2, Regulation V, 1812², and in Regulation XVIII³ of the same year, it is more distinctly declared that zamindars are at liberty to grant taluks or other leases of their lands, fixing the rent in perpetuity at their discretion, subject, however, to the liability of being dissolved on sale of the grantor's estate for arrears of the Government revenue in the same manner as heretofore.

In practice, the grant of taluks and other leases at a rent fixed in perpetuity had been common with the zamindars of Bengal for some time before the passing of the two Regulations last mentioned, but, notwithstanding the abrogation of the rule which declared such arrangements null and void, and the abandonment of all intention or desire to have it enforced as a security to the Government revenue in the manner originally contemplated, it was omitted to declare in the rules of Regulations V and XVIII³ of 1812, or in any other Regulations, whether tenures at the time in existence and held under covenants or engagements entered into by the parties in violation of the rule of section 2, Regulation XLIV, 1793¹, should, if called in question, be deemed invalid and void as heretofore.

The point it has been deemed necessary to set at rest by a general declaration of the validity of any tenures that may be now in existence, notwithstanding that they may have been granted at a rent fixed in perpetuity, or for a longer term than ten years, while the rule fixing this limitation to the term of all such engagements, and declaring null and void any granted in contravention thereto, was in force.

Furthermore, in the exercise of the privilege thus conceded to zamindars under direct engagements with Government, there has been created a tenure which had its origin on the estates of the Raja of Burdwan, but has since been extended to other zamindars; the character of which tenure is that it is a taluk created by the zamindar, to be held at a rent fixed in perpetuity by the lessee and his heirs for ever; the tenant is called upon to furnish collateral security for the rent, and for his conduct generally, or he is excused from this obligation at the zamindar's discretion; but even if the original tenant be excused, still, in case of sale for arrears, or other operation leading to the introduction of another tenant, such new incumbent has always in practice been liable to be so called upon at the option of the zamindar.

By the terms also of the engagements interchanged, it is amongst other stipulations provided that, in case of an arrear occurring, the tenure may be brought to sale by the zamindar,

of 1819.]

and, if the sale do not yield a sufficient amount to make good the balance of rent at the time due, the remaining property of the defaulter shall be further answerable for the demand.

These tenures have usually been denominated patni taluks, and it has been a common practice of the holders of them to underlet on precisely similar terms to other persons, who on taking such leases went by the name of darpatni talukdars: these again sometimes similarly underlet to sepatnidars; and the conditions of all the title-deeds vary in nothing material from the original engagements executed by the first holder.

In these engagements, however, it is not stipulated whether the sale thus reserved to himself by the grantor is for his own benefit, or for that of the tenant; that is, whether, in case the proceeds of sale should exceed the zamindar's demand of rent, the tenant would be entitled to such excess; neither is the manner of sale specified, nor do the usages of the country nor the Regulations of Government afford any distinct rules by the application of which to the specific cases the defects above alluded to could be supplied or the points of doubt and difficulty involved in the omission be brought to determination in a consistent and uniform manner.

The tenures in question have extended through several zilas of Bengal, and the mischiefs which have arisen from the want of a consistent rule of action for the guidance of the Courts of Civil Judicature in regard to them have been productive of such confusion as to demand the interference of the legislature: it has accordingly been deemed necessary to regulate and define the nature of property given and acquired on the creation of a patni taluk as above described, also to declare the legality of the practice of underletting in the manner in which it has been exercised by patnidars and others, establishing at the same time such provisions as have appeared calculated to protect the underlessee from any collusion of his immediate superior with the zamindar or other, for his ruin, as well as to secure the just rights of the zamindar on the sale of any tenure under the stipulations of the original engagements entered into with him.

It has further been deemed indispensable to fix the process by which the said tenures are to be brought to sale, and the form and manner of conducting such sale; and whereas the estates of zamindars under engagements with Government are liable to be brought to sale at any time for an arrear in the revenue payable by monthly kists to Government, it has seemed just to allow any zamindar who may have granted tenure with a stipulation of the right to sell for arrears, the opportunity of availing himself of this means of realizing his dues in the middle of the year, as well as at the close, instead of only at the end of the Bengal year,¹ as heretofore allowed by the Regulations in force ; it has further been deemed equitable to extend this rule to all cases in which the right of sale may have been reserved, even though, in conformity with the Regulations heretofore in force, the stipulation for sale contained in the engagements interchanged may have restricted such sale to the case of a demand for rent remaining unpaid at the close of the Bengal year.¹

3. First.—The tenures known by the name of patni taluks, as described in the preamble to this Regulation, shall be deemed to be valid tenures in perpetuity, according to the terms of the engagements under which they are held. They are heritable by their conditions; and it is hereby further declared that they are capable of being transferred by sale, gift or otherwise, at the discretion of the holder, as well as answerable for his personal debts, and subject to the process of the Courts of Judicature, in the same manner as other real property.

Patni tenures declared valid transferable and answerable for debt.

Second.—Patni talukdars are hereby declared to possess the right of letting out the lands composing their taluks in any manner they may deem most conducive to their interest; and any engagements so entered into by such talukdars with others shall be legal and binding between the parties to the same, their heirs and assignees:

Patnidar's right of under-letting.

Provided, however, that no such engagements shall operate to the prejudice of the right of the zumindar to hold the superior tenure answerable for any arrear of his rent, in the estate in which he granted it, and free of all incumbrance resulting from the act of his tenant.

Third.—In case of an arrear occurring upon any tenure of the description alluded to in the first clause of this section, it shall not be liable to be cancelled for the same; * * * but the tenure shall be brought to sale by public auction, and the holder of the tenure will be entitled to any excess in the proceeds of such sale beyond the amount of the arrear of rent due, subject, however, to the provisions contained in section 17 of this Regulation.

Patni tenure not voidable for arrears.

⁹[Fourth.—Subject to the provision of section 14A of this Regulation, an arrear of rent shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other section of this Regulation or in any engagement between the zamindar and the talukdar whether entered into, before or after the commencement of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1941, bear simple interest at the rate of six and a quarter per centum per annum from the expiration of that quarter of the agricultural year in which the instalment falls due to the date of payment or of sale of the tenure under this Regulation or of the institution of a suit for arrears of rent, whichever is earlier.

Explanation.—The term 'agricultural year' has the same meaning as in clause (1) of section 3 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.]

The date on which the Collector directs the opening of a separate account shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

(3) If any of the co-sharers of the applicant or the zamindar or any of his co-sharers object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the patni taluk is less or other than that claimed by him, or if the application be in respect of a specific portion of the land of a taluk, that the amount of rent stated by the applicant to have been heretofore paid on account of such portion of land is not the amount which has been recognized by the other sharers as the rent thereof, the Collector shall refer the parties to the civil court and shall suspend proceedings until the question at issue is judicially determined.

if the taluk shall become liable for sale for arrears of rent, only that share or portion of such taluk shall be put up for sale in respect of which the arrear of rent may be due.

(5) In the advertisement of sale, notice of intention to exclude the share or portion of the patni taluk from which no arrear of rent is due shall be given. On the twenty-first day from the service of notice on the co-sharers of the tenant, the entire patni taluk shall be put up for sale for the arrears, unless any other co-sharer of the tenant shall, within fifteen days, have purchased the share or portion in arrear by paying the whole of the arrears of rent for which it was advertised for sale and the subsequent arrears of rent due thereon or the tenant pays up the whole of such arrears within the said fifteen days :

Provided that, if a zamindar omits to avail himself of the means provided by this Regulation for realisation of any arrears of rent due in respect of a share or a portion of a patni taluk, he shall not be entitled to put up for sale under this Regulation the entire patni taluk for recovery of such arrears.

(7) If such purchase is completed, the officer making the sale shall give a certificate of sale and delivery of possession, and if no such purchase is made within fifteen days, the entire taluk shall be sold in the manner referred to in section 14 of the Bengal Land-revenue Sales Act, 1859.

8. First.—Zamindars, that is, proprietors under direct engagements with the ²[Government], shall be entitled to apply in the manner following for periodical sales of any tenures upon which the right of selling or bringing to sale for an arrear of rent may have been specially reserved by stipulation in the engagements interchanged on the creation of the tenure.

The exercise of this power shall not be confined to cases in which the stipulation for sale may have been unrestricted in regard to time, but shall apply equally to tenures held under engagements stipulating merely for a sale at the end of the year, in conformity with the practice heretofore allowed by the Regulations in force.

Second.—On the first day of Baisakh,³ that is, at the commencement of the following year from that of which the rent is due, the zamindar shall present a petition ⁴* * * to the Collector, containing a specification of any balances that may be due to him on account of the expired year, from all or any talukdars or other holders of an interest of the nature described in the preceding clause of this section.

First sale

The same shall then be stuck up in some conspicuous part of the cutcherry with a notice that, if the amount claimed be not paid before the first of *Jeth*⁵ following, the tenures of the defaulters will on that day be sold by public sale in liquidation.

⁵The month Jeth corresponds with the last part of May and the first part of June.

(Section 8.)

Should, however, the first of Jeth¹ fall on a Sunday or holiday, the next subsequent day, not a holiday, shall be selected instead ; a similar notice shall be stuck up at the sadar cutcherry of the zamindar himself, and a copy or extract of such part of the notice as may apply to the individual case shall be by him sent to be similarly published at the cutcherry or at the principal town or village upon the land of the defaulter.

The zamindar shall be exclusively answerable for the observance of the forms above prescribed, and the notice required to be sent into the mufassal shall be served by a single peon, who shall bring back the receipt of the defaulter, or of his manager for the same, or, in the event of inability to procure this, the signatures of three substantial persons residing in the neighbourhood, in attestation of the notice having been brought and published on the spot.

If it shall appear from the tenor of the receipt or attestation in question that the notice has been published at any time, previous to the fifteenth of the month of *Baisakh*² it shall be sufficient warrant for the sale to proceed upon the day appointed.

In case the people of the village should object or refuse to sign their names in attestation, the peon shall go to the cutcherry of the nearest munsif, or if there should be no munsif, to the nearest thana, and there make voluntary oath of the same having been duly published ; certificate to which effect shall be signed and sealed by the said officers and delivered to the peon.

³[The zamindar shall also send by registered post to all defaulters a copy of, or an extract from, the notice containing a specification of any balances that may be due to him on account of the rent of the expired year and other particulars mentioned in this section.]

Third.—On the first day of Kartik,⁴ in the middle of the year, the zamindar shall be at liberty to present a similar petition, with a statement of any balances that may be due on account of the rent of the current year, up to the end of the month of Aswin,⁵ and to cause similar publication to be made of a sale of the tenures of defaulters, to take place on the first of Aghan,⁶ unless the whole of the advertised balance shall be paid before the date in question, or so much of it as shall reduce the arrear, including any intermediate demand for the month of Kartik,⁴ to less than one-fourth or a four-anna

³*Fourth.* Where the zamindar is satisfied that there is reason to believe that the defaulter is keeping out of the way for the purpose of avoiding service of a notice or document under this section or that for any other reason the notice or document cannot be served in the ordinary way, he may cause it to be served by affixing the same in some conspicuous part of the house (if any) in which the defaulter is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain.

Service by the abovementioned method shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the defaulter personally.

⁴*Fifth.*—The name and address given in a notice of succession or transfer of a patni taluk or a share or a portion thereof under section 17A shall be presumed to be the correct name and address of the person succeeding to, or transferee of such taluk until fresh notice under that section has been given on a subsequent date or until a change of the address has been notified to the zamindar by registered post not later than 1st day of Chaitra or the 1st day of Aswin immediately preceding the date of sale fixed under this section.

9. All sales of saleable tenures applied for under the rules of this Regulation shall be made in public cutcherry * * * ; the land shall be sold to the highest bidder, and every one, not the actual defaulter, shall be free to bid, not excepting the person in satisfaction of whose demand the sale may be made, nor the undertenants of the defaulter ; fifteen per cent. of the purchase-money shall be paid immediately the lot is knocked down, and the officer conducting the sale shall be competent to refuse to accept a bid, or to knock down a lot to any bidder, unless he has assurance to his satisfaction that the amount required to be deposited is in hand for the purpose, or will be produced within two hours.

10. At the time of the sale the notice previously stuck up in the cutcherry shall be taken down, and the lots be called up successively in the order in which they may be found in that notice.

A person shall attend on the part of the zamindar, with a particular statement of the payments made up to the day of sale, on account of the balance of each advertised lot, together with the receipt for, or certificate of, the notice directed to be published in the mufassal, nor shall any lot be put up to sale until the statement produced shall have been inspected, and the existence of a balance for the year ascertained therefrom, nor until the receipt for the notice shall have been read; the observance of which forms shall be recorded in a separate rubakari to be held upon each lot sold.

If the sale be of the description provided for in the third clause of section 8 of this Regulation, the kistbandi of the defaulter shall likewise be produced, in order that it may be seen that the balance remaining unpaid exceeds a four-anna proportion of the demand up to the date of sale; nor shall the sale take place unless this be ascertained.

The zamindar shall be exclusively responsible for the correctness and authenticity of the papers to be thus exhibited, nor shall the public officer making the sale be answerable in any respect, except for its fairness and publicity, and for the observance of the rules prescribed for his guidance in this Regulation.

Tenure

11. First.—It is hereby declared that any taluk or saleable tenure that may be disposed of at a public sale, under the rules of this Regulation, for arrears of rent due on account of it, is sold free of all incumbrances that may have accrued upon it by act of the defaulting proprietor, his representatives or assignees, unless the right of making such incumbrances shall have been expressly vested in the holder by a stipulation to that effect in the written engagements under which the said taluk may have been held.

No transfer by sale, gift or otherwise, no mortgage or other limited assignment, shall be permitted to bar the indefeasible right of the zamindar to hold the tenure of his creation answerable, in the state in which he created it for the rent, which is in fact his reserved property in the tenure, except the transfer

or assignment should have been made with a condition to that effect, under express authority obtained from such zamindar.

Second.—In like manner, on sale of a taluk for arrears, all leases originating with the holder of the former tenure, if creative of a middle interest between the resident cultivators and the late proprietor, must be considered to be cancelled except the authority to grant them should have been specially transferred; the possessors of such interests must consequently lose the right to hold possession of the land and to collect the rents of the *raiya*t; this having been enjoyed merely in consequence of the defaulter's assignment of a certain portion of his own interest, the whole of which was liable for the rent.

No under-lease to stand after sale.

Third.—Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to entitle the purchaser of a taluk or other saleable tenure intermediated between the zamindar and actual cultivators to eject a khudkast raiyat or resident and hereditary cultivator, nor to cancel bona fide engagements made with such tenants by the late incumbent or his representative, except it be proved in regular suit, to be brought by such purchaser for the adjustment of his rent, that a higher rate would have been demandable at the time such engagements were contracted by his predecessor.

Exception in favour of bona fide engagements with *raiya*t.

12. The rules of the preceding section, being declaratory of the principle to be observed on all occasions wherein saleable tenures are made responsible for the zamindar's reserved rent, will equally apply to the case of taluks, heretofore sold, as to those that may be sold henceforward, if the sale shall have been fair, and the process observed in conducting it shall have been that recognised and in use in the district at the time of selling.

Above rule to take effect retrospectively.

Nothing, however, herein contained shall operate to the prejudice of any agreement, express or implied, now subsisting between the purchaser of a taluk and the lessees of his predecessor.

Proviso.

Neither shall the rule for the fall of under-tenures be considered to apply to any private transfer by a talukdār of his own interest, nor to a public sale in execution of a decree, nor to the case of a relinquishment by the talukdār in favour of the zamindar, nor to any act originating with the former holder, other than default as aforesaid: all such operations involve only a transfer of the tenure in the state in which it may be held at the time, and the new incumbent succeeds to no more than the reserved rights of the former tenant, such as they may be, and is of course subject to any restriction put upon the tenure by his act.

Rules not to apply to private transfers.

13. First.—With reference to the injury that may be brought upon the holder of a taluk of the second degree by the operation of the preceding rules, in case the proprietor of the superior tenure purposely withholds the rent due from himself to the zamindar after having realised his own dues from the inferior tenantry, it is deemed necessary to allow such *talukdār*s the means of saving their tenures from the ruin that must attend such a sale; and the following rules have accordingly been enacted for this purpose,

Reason for allowing under-tenants means of staying sale.

(Section 13.)

How under-tenants may
sale.

Second.—Whenever the tenure of a talukdār of the first degree may be advertised for sale in the manner required by the second and third clauses of section 8 of this Regulation, for arrears of rent due to the zamindar, the *talukdār*s of the second degree, or any number of them, shall be entitled to stay the final sale, by paying into Court the amount of balance that may be declared due by the person attending on the part of the zamindar on the day appointed for sale; in like manner they shall be entitled to lodge money antecedently, for the purpose of eventually answering any demand that may remain due on the day fixed for the sale, and, should the amount lodged be sufficient, the sale shall not proceed, but, after making good to the zamindar the amount of his demand, any excess shall be paid back to the person or persons who may have lodged it.

Procedure
in case of amount lodged being tenant;

Third.—If the amount so lodged shall be rent due by the inferior talukdār to the holder of the advertised tenure, the same shall be stated at the time of making the deposit, and the amount shall be carried to the account of the tenant or tenants lodging it, and be deducted from any claim of rent that may at the time be pending, or be thereafter brought forward against him or them by the proprietor of the advertised tenure, on account of the year or months for which the notice of sale may have been published.

from
funds,

Fourth.—If the person or persons making such a deposit, in order to stay the sale of the superior tenure, shall have already paid the whole of the rent due from himself or themselves, so that the amount lodged is an advance from private funds, and not a disbursement on account of the said rent, such deposit shall not be carried to credit in, or set against, future demands for rent, but shall be considered as a loan made to the proprietor of the tenure preserved from sale by such means, and the taluk so preserved shall be the security to the person or persons making the advance, who shall be considered to have a lien thereupon, in the same manner as if the loan had been made upon mortgage; and he or they shall be entitled, on applying for the same, to obtain immediate possession of the tenure of the defaulter, in order to recover the amount so advanced from any profits belonging thereto.

If the defaulter shall desire to recover his tenure from the hands of the person or persons who, by making the advance may have acquired such an interest therein, and entered on possession in consequence, he shall not be entitled to do so, except upon repayment of the entire sum advanced, with interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum up to the date of possession having been given as above, or upon exhibiting proof, in a regular suit to be instituted for the purpose, that the full amount so advanced, with interest, has been realised from the usufruct of the tenure.

Fifth.—When any person whose interests are affected by the sale of a patni taluk or a share or a portion thereof advertised for sale under this Regulation pays to the Collector the amount requisite to prevent the sale—

- (a) the amount so paid by him shall be deemed to be a debt bearing interest at twelve per centum per annum and secured by a mortgage of the taluk or a share or a portion thereof to him ;
- (b) his mortgage shall take priority of every other charge on the taluk or a share or a portion thereof other than a charge for arrears of rent ; and
- (c) he shall be entitled to possession of the taluk or a share or a portion thereof as mortgagee of the talukdâr, and to retain possession of it as such until the debt, with the interest due thereon, has been discharged.

Nothing in this clause shall affect any other remedy to which any such person would be entitled.

¹*Sixth.*—When a patni taluk or a share or a portion thereof is advertised for sale under this Regulation, for arrears of rent owing to the default of a superior talukdâr, and an inferior talukdâr pays money to the Collector in order to prevent the sale such inferior talukdâr may, in addition to any other remedy provided for him by law, deduct the whole or any portion of the amount so paid from any rent payable by him to his immediate landlord ; and that landlord, if he is not the defaulter may, in like manner, deduct the amount so deducted, from any rent payable by him to his immediate landlord and so on until the defaulter is reached.

14. First.—Should the balance claimed by a zamindar on account of the rent of any under-tenure remain unpaid upon the day fixed for the sale of the tenure, the sale shall be made without reserve, in the manner provided for in sections 9 and 10 of this Regulation ; nor shall it be stayed or postponed on any account, unless the amount of the demand be lodged.

It shall, however, be competent to any party desirous of contesting the right of the zamindar to make the sale, whether on the ground of there having been no balance due or on any other ground, to sue the zamindar for the reversal of the same, and, upon establishing a sufficient plea, to obtain a decree with full costs and damages.

Sale not to be stayed unless arrear claimed be lodged. But suit to lie for its reversal.

The purchaser shall be made a party in such suits, and, upon decree passing for reversal of the sale, the Court shall be careful to indemnify him against all loss, at the charge of the zamindar or person at whose suit the sale may have been made :

Defaulter
may apply for summary
gation.

Second.—In cases also in which a talukdār may contest the zamindār's demand of any arrear, as specified in the notice advertised, such talukdār shall be competent to apply for a summary investigation at any time within the period of notice ; the zamindār shall then be called upon to furnish his kabuliyat and other proofs at the shortest convenient notice, in order that the award may, if possible, be made before the day appointed for sale.

Sale
not to be stayed unless
claimed
deposited.

Such award, if so made, will of course regulate the ulterior process ; but, if the case be still pending, the lot shall be called up in its turn, notwithstanding the suit ; and, if the zamindār or his agent in attendance insist on the demand, the sale shall be made on his responsibility, nor shall it be stayed, or the summary suit be allowed to proceed, unless the amount claimed be lodged in cash, or in Government securities, or in ¹[currency notes], by the talukdār contesting the demand ; and if such deposit be not made, the alleged defaulter will have no remedy but by a regular action for damages and for a reversal of the sale ²[unless he makes an application under section 14A].

³[Third.—Any talukdar shall be entitled to stay the sale of his patni taluk or of a share or a portion thereof before the sale of such taluk, share or portion actually takes place by paying to the officer conducting the sale the amount of arrears of rent for which it was advertised for sale.]

setting
sale.

⁴14A. First.—It shall be competent to a defaulting patni-dar of a patni taluk or a defaulting holder of a tenure sold under this Regulation or to a talukdār or tenure-holder of the second degree of such taluk or tenure or to a person holding an interest in such taluk or tenure in virtue of a title acquired before the sale of the taluk or tenure or to a person having a mortgage on such taluk or tenure to apply to the Collector to have the sale set aside on the applicant depositing with the Collector within thirty days from the date of sale, or, if the taluk or tenure has been resold, within thirty days from the date of the original sale—

(a) a sum of money equal to one per cent. of the purchase money, for payment to ⁵[the State Government] for the purposes specified in the second clause of section 17,

(b) a sum of money equal to the amount on account of which the sale has been made together with interest

²These words were added by section 2 of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Ben. Act IV of 1933).

³Added by section 8(b) of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1940 (Ben. Act XV of 1940).

⁴Section 14A was inserted by section 3 of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Ben. Act IV of 1933).

⁵The words "the Provincial Government" were substituted for the word "Government" by para. 5 and Sch. XIV of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, and the word "State" was subsequently substituted for the word "Provincial" by paragraph 4(I) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

¹[up to the date of deposit] and all charges incurred in bringing the taluk or tenure to sale, for payment to the zamindar, and

- (c) a sum of money equal to five per cent. of the purchase money and in no case less than one rupee for payment to the purchaser.-

On receipt of an application to set aside the sale the Collector shall serve a notice on the zamindar and the auction purchaser fixing a date for hearing the same.

Second.—No application shall be entertained under this section if the applicant has instituted a suit in the Civil Court to set aside the sale unless he first withdraws such suit.

Third.—No application shall be allowed under this section without the consent of the zamindar if the defaulting talukdār or tenure-holder is liable or has agreed to pay on behalf of the zamindar any revenue or cess due to ²[the State Government] from the zamindar and such revenue or cess has not been paid to ³[the State Government] or deposited in Court before the date fixed for the hearing of the application.

Fourth.—If no objection is made by the zamindar or the auction purchaser on the date fixed for the hearing of the application or on any subsequent date to which the hearing may be adjourned and the deposit required by the first clause of this section has been made within thirty days from the date of the sale, the Collector shall allow the application and make an order setting aside the sale, and shall pass orders for the disposal of the money deposited by the applicant and the refund of the purchase money.

Fifth.—If any objection is made by the zamindar or auction purchaser the Collector shall refer the application together with the objection to the nearest Civil Court having jurisdiction and such Civil Court shall decide whether the applicant is entitled under this section to have the sale set aside, and shall either dismiss the application or make an order setting aside the sale, and shall pass such further orders regarding the disposal of the money deposited by the applicant, the refund of the purchase money, the payment of costs or any other matter arising out of the application as it thinks fit.

The Civil Court may, at its discretion, make suitable arrangements for protection of the taluk or tenure but the patnidar or tenure-holder shall be allowed to remain in possession if he pays to the Court in advance six months' rent payable by him for such patni or tenure or gives security for one year's rent to the satisfaction of the Court. If such payment is not made or security is not given the Court may appoint a receiver for the patni or tenure.

Sixth.—The Civil Court may direct that any sum in deposit with the Collector under the first or third clause of this section

Seventh.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this section the zamindar may, at any time after the sale-proceeds have been deposited under section 9, if such sale-proceeds are still in deposit and the sale has not been set aside, withdraw therefrom an amount equal to the amount on account of which the sale was made or the whole amount of the sale-proceeds less the one per cent. due to ¹[the State Government], whichever is less, and if the sale is thereafter set aside by the Collector or the Civil Court under this section an amount equal to the amount so withdrawn by the zamindar shall be paid out of the deposit made by the applicant under sub-clause (b) of the first clause of this section to the auction purchaser instead of to the zamindar.

Eighth.—The provisions of this section shall apply to the setting aside of the sale of a share or portion of a patni taluk whenever a separate account shall have been ordered to be opened in respect of such share or portion under section 6A.]

15. First.—³[On the expiry of thirty days from the date of any sale made under this Regulation, or if there has been a resale within thirty days of the original sale if the entire amount of the purchase money has been paid by the purchaser, and if no application under section 1-A to set aside the sale is pending], such purchaser shall receive from the officers conducting the sale a certificate of such payment.

The purchaser shall then proceed with the certificate in question to procure a transfer to his name in the cutcherry of the zamindar, and upon furnishing security, if required, to the extent of half the jama or annual rent, he shall receive the usual "amaldustauk" or order for possession, together with the notice to the *raiya*t and others to attend and pay their rents henceforward to him.

The zamindar shall also be bound to furnish access to any papers connected with the tenure purchased that may be forthcoming in his cutcherry; and should he in any manner delay the transfer in his office, or refuse to give the orders for possession, notwithstanding that good and substantial security shall have been furnished or tendered on requisition, the new purchaser shall be entitled to apply direct to the Court, and he shall receive the orders for possession, and shall be put in possession, of the lands by means of the nazir, in the same manner as possession is obtained under a decree of Court.

Provided, however, that, if the delay be on account of the

A proclamation shall then issue, under the seal of the Court and signature of the Judge declaring that the new incumbent having, by purchase at a sale for arrears of rent due to the zamindar, acquired the entire rights and privileges attaching to the tenure of the late talukdâr, in the state in which it was originally derived by him from the zamindar, he alone will be recognised as entitled to make the zamindari collections in the mufassal, and no payments made to any other individual will on any account be credited to the rai-yats or others in any ¹*suit for rent ²* * * or on any other occasion whatever when the same may be pleaded.

Third.—Should the late incumbent or his late under-tenants continue to oppose the entry of the new purchaser, notwithstanding the issuing of such a proclamation, or should there be reason to apprehend a breach of the peace on the part of any one, the aid of the police-officers and of all other public officers who may be at hand and capable of affording assistance shall be given to the new purchaser, on his presenting a written application for the same; and in the event of any affray or breach of the peace occurring, the entire responsibility shall rest with the party opposing the lawful attempt of the purchaser to assume his rights.

Third.—The balance on account of which the sale may have been made shall next be made good in full (with interest and all charges incurred in bringing the taluk to sale) to the zamindar or other person to whom the same may be due :

Provided, however, that no former balances, beyond those of the current year (or of that immediately expired, if the sale be at the commencement of the following year), shall be included in the demand to be thus satisfied. Such antecedent balances, if the zamindar shall have omitted to avail himself of the process within his reach for having them satisfied at the time, will have become in fact mere personal debts of the individual talukdâr, and must be recovered in the same way as other debts by a regular suit in the Court.

Fourth.—Any excess that may remain after satisfying the demand of the zamindar, in the manner above described, shall be forthwith sent by the officer conducting the sale to the treasury of the Collector or Assistant Collector of the district, to be there held in deposit to answer the claims of the talukdârs of the second degree, or of others, who, by assignments of the defaulter, may be at the time in possession of a valuable interest on the land composing the taluk sold, or on any part of it.

Fifth.—It shall be competent to any one conceiving himself to possess such an interest to bring forward his claim to the price he may have paid for the same, or for a just compensation for the loss sustained by him in consequence of the sale, by instituting a regular suit at any time within two months from the date of sale.

If the Court shall, on investigation, consider the plaintiff's claim to be an equitable one, the Court will award to the claimant either the price he may have originally paid, or the value of the interest at the time of sale, or any other amount that may be deemed just and equitable under all the circumstances.

If there be more claimants than one, payment shall not be made from the deposit until the whole of the claims be settled; and, in case the value assessed upon the whole should exceed the amount in deposit, such amount shall be divided proportionately, and the remainder stand as a personal debt against the defaulter, to be realised from him by the usual process for the execution of decrees.

(Section 17.)

Sixth.—Provided, however, that no talukdār of the second degree or other possessor of an assigned interest upon the land of the tenure sold, who may be holding under a stipulation for the payment of an annual amount in the way of rent, shall be entitled to recover compensation for the loss of such tenure or assignment upon its becoming cancelled by sale of the superior taluk, except after exhibiting proof that the whole amount of the rent demandable from himself has been paid or lodged for the purpose prior to the date of sale.

Suit not to lie if under-tenant be himself in arrear at time of sale.

Seventh.—Should no claims upon the purchase-money of a taluk sold as above be brought forward by any under-tenants or assignees within the period of two months from the date of sale, or should the amount claimed by those who may have sued not equal the entire deposit, the defaulter whose tenure may have been sold shall be at liberty to petition the Court for the amount so held in deposit, or for the excess thereof, as the case may be, and he shall receive a certificate under the seal of the Court, of there being no claims to afford ground of detention for the whole or any part of the deposit; and, upon exhibiting such certificate to the Collector the amount set free thereby shall be to his receipt.

When defaulter to receive excess unclaimed.

In the same manner, upon executing a decree passed in favour of any under-tenants or assignees, they shall receive certificates under the seal of the Court, declaring the amount adjudged to them out of the deposit; and upon exhibiting these certificates the amount shall be paid severally to their receipts by the Collector.

Eighth.—¹[(1)] It shall be competent to any party interested in a deposit to withdraw the whole or any part thereof on substituting ²[the State Government] securities, bearing interest, in lieu of the money so held in deposit; such securities to be taken at the rate of discount or premium of the day § * * *

Substitution of State Government securities for cash in deposit.

⁴(2) On the application of any of the parties to any suit relating to the sale of a taluk or the disposal of purchase-money of the taluk sold, the Civil Court may direct that any sum held in deposit under the fourth clause of this section shall be invested pending the further orders of the Court, and thereupon the Collector shall remit the said sum to the Court for investment.

A Regulation for providing that all sales of certain taluks made answerable by sale for arrears of the zamindar's rent shall be conducted in the mode prescribed by Regulation VIII, 1819,² for the sales therein described.

*A Regulation for declaring principles according to which the settlement of the land-revenue in² * * * [Cutlack,] Pataspur and its dependencies is to be hereafter made, and the powers and duties belonging to Collectors or other officers employed in making, revising or superintending settlements; ³ * * * for defining, settling and recording the rights and obligations of various classes and persons possessing an interest in the land, or in the rent or produce thereof; and for vesting the Revenue-authorities with judicial cognizance in certain cases of suits and claims relating to land, the rent and produce of land.*

1. Whereas the existing settlement of the land-revenue in the Ceded Provinces will expire with the present Fasli year,⁴ and it has therefore become necessary to declare and enact the principles and rules according to which the demand of the State is thereafter to be regulated, and the manner in which future settlements and revisions of settlements are to be conducted.⁵

Preamble.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

²The words "the Ceded and Conquered Provinces, including" which were repealed by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), are omitted.

³The words "for continuing, with certain exception, the existing leases within the said provinces for a further term of five years" which were repealed by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891), are omitted.

⁴i.e., the 1st September, 1822.

⁵The portion printed in italics is obsolete, Bengal Regulation VII of 1822 having been repealed in the North-Western Provinces by the N.-W.P. Land-revenue Act, 1873 (XIX of 1873).

(Section 1.)

And whereas a moderate assessment being equally conducive to the true interests of Government and to the well-being of its subjects, it is the wish and intention of Government that in revising the existing settlement the efforts of the Revenue-officers should be chiefly directed not to any general and extensive enhancement of the jama but to the objects equalizing the public burthens, and of ascertaining, settling and recording the rights, interests, privileges and properties of all persons and classes owning, occupying, managing or cultivating the land, or gathering or disposing of its produce, or collecting or appropriating the rent or revenue payable on account of land, or the produce of land, or paying or receiving any cesses, contributions or perquisites to or from any persons resident in, or owning, occupying or holding parcel of, any village or mahal :

And whereas, with these views and intentions, the Governor General in Council¹ has considered it to be expedient and proper, with the exception hereinafter specified, to continue the existing assessment in all cases in which the settlement has been formed with zamindars or other persons acknowledged as proprietors or possessors of a permanent interest in the mahal for which they may have engaged, until a new settlement can be made, combining, with the revision of the Government jama and the deliberate investigation of the facts by the determination of which its amount must be regulated, a full inquiry into, and a careful settlement of the rights and interest of all classes connected with the land :

And whereas the same principles are applicable to [the district of Cuttack,] the pargana of Pataspur and its dependencies, of which the settlement will expire with the present "amli" year² :

And whereas it has appeared expedient to make special provision for the early settlement of ³* * * the pargana of Pataspur and its dependencies :

⁴* * * *

And whereas it is the desire of Government that the proceedings held, and the records formed, by the Collectors when making settlements or otherwise specially employed in conducting inquiries of the above nature should be such as that all demands, claims and suits may be adjudged and determined according to the facts therein stated, until the same shall have been formally altered, or it shall be shown, by the result of a full investigation in a regular suit, that the proceeding or record of the Collector was erroneous or incomplete :

And whereas it is necessary to declare and define the powers and authority to be vested in Collectors in the conduct of the said inquiries, and the adjustment of the differences arising out of or made known by them :

And whereas it further appears advisable that the revenue-officers should in certain cases be vested with authority judicially to receive, hear, investigate and determine suits, claims and demands of the above description :

And whereas it appears to be expedient to declare and explain the views and intentions of Government relative to the rights to be enjoyed and exercised by the sadar malguzars or persons admitted to engage for the payment of the Government revenue, and by persons collecting the rents of the land or revenue of Government, without being subject to the payment of any portion of it to the public treasury, such as jagirdars and other owners or managers of lakhiraj lands ; and it is particularly necessary, in the case of estates held in pattidari or bhaiya chara tenure, to make further provision for protecting the sharers who have not been admitted to engagement with Government against the encroachments of the sadar malguzar, and likewise to secure the latter against the consequences of the embezzlement or misappropriation by the former of the funds whence the Government revenue ought to be discharged.

For the purposes and objects above specified the following rules have been enacted, to be in force ¹* * * * in [the district of Cuttack,] the pargana of Pataspur and its dependencies.

2. First to Fifth.—[Extension of existing settlements in Ceded Provinces and Cuttack; proclamation of proposed extension; Gorakhpur and Azamgarh excluded; existing leases in Pataspur to continue from year to year.]—Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874).

Sixth —²* * * * if any zamindar or other malguzar ³[acknowledged as the proprietor or possessor of a permanent interest in the mahal for which he has engaged], who may now or hereafter be under engagement for the payment of the revenue demandable by Government on account of any mahal, shall be allowed by the Revenue-authorities to continue in the management of such mahal after the expiration of such engagement, and shall do or direct any act relative to the cultivation or management of such mahal, or the settlement, assessment or collection of the rents of such mahal, in or on account of any year subsequent to the term of such engagement, such zamindar

General rule relative to zamindars holding on after expiration of their leases.

²Formal words which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

or other malguzar aforesaid shall be held to be responsible on account of such year for the same revenue as may have been demandable from him for the year preceding, unless otherwise specially agreed upon :

Provided further that it shall be competent for Collectors or other officers exercising the power of Collector, with the sanction of the Board or Commissioner to whom they may be subordinate, at any time, not being more than six months previous to the expiration of a settlement, to call upon the zamindars or other malguzars as aforesaid to declare whether or not they are willing to continue their engagements for the ensuing year ; and, if such zamindars or other malguzars shall not forthwith notify their refusal to do so, they shall be held to have agreed to such an extension of their leases at the existing assessment, and so on, from year to year, as aforesaid.

Zamindars or other malguzars who may be allowed to hold on from year to year shall not be chargeable with any additional revenue on account of any year, unless the Collector or other officer exercising the powers of Collector shall notify his intention to revise the assessment on or before the commencement of such year, unless where otherwise specially provided.

Settlements how made.

3. With respect to estates which are at present let to farm, a settlement thereof shall be made on the expiration of the existing leases for such a period as the ¹[State Government] may direct.

A preference shall be given to the zamindars or other persons possessing a permanent property in the mahals, if willing to engage for the payment of the public revenue on reasonable terms :

Provided also that, in cases wherein such mahals may be let in farm, the term of the lease granted to the farmers shall not exceed twelve years.

The above rules shall likewise be applicable to estates now held khas.

So in any case wherein the zamindars and other proprietors may refuse to continue their existing engagements, or to enter into new engagements, on equitable terms, it shall be competent to the Revenue-authorities to let the lands in farm for such period, not exceeding twelve years, as the ¹[State Government] shall appoint, or to assume the direct management of them, and to retain them under khas management during the period aforesaid or such shorter period as may be judged proper :

Provided further that, if in any case it shall appear to the Revenue-authorities that the continuance or admission of any Raja, zamindar, talukdar or other person who may have engaged, ¹The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by paragraph 4(1) of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, and the word "State" was substituted for the word "Provincial" by paragraph 4(1) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

or may claim to engage, for any mahal or mahals, in or to the management of such mahal or mahals, would endanger the public tranquillity or otherwise be seriously detrimental, it shall be their duty to report the circumstances ¹[to the State Government], and it shall be competent to the ²[State Government] ³[by notification in the ⁴Official Gazette], to cause such mahal or mahals to be held khas or let in farm, for such term as may appear expedient and proper, not exceeding the period above specified.

4. In admitting particular parties to engage it was in no degree the intention of Government to compromise private rights or privileges, or to vest the sadar malguzars with any rights not previously possessed by them, excepting in so far as their interest in the land for which they may have engaged might be improved by the limitation of the Government demand, or otherwise by the resignation in their favour of rights previously vested in Government itself, or as it may have been found necessary, with a view to the punctual realization of the public dues, to vest the sadar malguzar, by special Regulation, with authority of distraint, or other powers of coercion over the under-tenants.

On the contrary, it is the anxious desire of Government, and the bounden duty of its officers, to secure every one in the possession of the rights and privileges which he may lawfully possess or be entitled to possess.

In pursuance of this principle, it is hereby declared and enacted that nothing in the above provisions for extending the existing leases, or in the stipulations of the existing settlements, do or shall be construed to bar the Revenue-officers, duly empowered in that behalf, from interfering to adjust the respective rights of the sadar malguzars and their under-tenants ; nor shall any claims to a remission or abatement of revenue be admitted on the ground of any decision or order passed in that behalf ; but, if such decision or order shall operate materially to reduce the profits derived by any zamindar or malguzars from the mahal owned or managed by him, it shall be competent for such zamindar or malguzar to relinquish his engagements, and the Revenue-officers shall in such case proceed to make a settlement of the mahal de novo.

5. [First.—Repeal of provisions relative to malikana and nankar.—Rep. by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

Admission of particular persons to engage for payment of revenue, not to bar Revenue-officers from interfering to adjust rights of other persons or classes.

¹The words "to the Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "to Government" by para. 3 and Sch. XIV of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, and the word "State" was substituted for the word "Provincial" by paragraph 4(I) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

²See foot-note 1 on page 212, ante.

³The words "by an Order in Council" in the original text, are to be read, as if the words "by notification in the local Official Gazette" were substituted therefor—see the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

⁴The words "Official Gazette" were substituted for the words "local Official Gazette" by paragraph 4(I) of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

(Section 5.)

Malikana to be allowed to proprietors of estates farmed or held khas.

Second.—The proprietors of estates let in farm or held khas shall be entitled to receive an allowance of malikana, at such rate as the Board * * * or other authority exercising the powers of that Board may determine, anything in the existing Regulations notwithstanding: the said malikana to be apportioned in cases in which several proprietors may have heretofore held an estate under one common assessment, whether in joint tenancy or otherwise, according to the shares of each respectively:

Provided also that the malikana allowance granted to the proprietor or proprietors of any mahal shall not in any case be less than five per cent. on the net amount realized by ²[the State Government] from the lands; nor shall it exceed ten per cent. on that amount without the special sanction of the ¹[State Government]:

Provided further that, if the said proprietors shall in any case be in the receipt of any perquisite or the profits of any lands in lieu of the nankar formerly granted to them * * *, in consideration of their proprietary tenure, the amount of such allowance shall be deducted from the malikana to which they are by this section declared to be entitled:

Provided also that this rule shall not apply to such zamindars as may continue in the occupancy of their tenures whilst the mahal in which they are included is held khas or farmed, or of any part of them, that is to say, zamindars who may cultivate or lease their lands and pay the revenue to the farmer or Government officer; nor, without the special sanction of ³[the State Government], to any malguzar, zamindar or other proprietor or holder of land who may directly or indirectly continue to draw any allowance from the *raiya*s of the lands farmed or held khas:

Provided also that malguzars, not being actual proprietors of the land included in the estate for which they may have formerly been under engagements, though recorded in the accounts of past settlements as zamindars, talukdars or the like, or being proprietors of a part only of such land, shall not receive the above allowance on the jama of the estate, but shall receive such allowance in lieu of their title of management as it may appear to ²[the State Government] to be equitable to assign, in addition to the malikana to which they may be entitled on account of any lands held by them in actual property, and of which they may not retain the occupancy: and no malikana shall be granted to any sadar malguzar on account of lands the occupants of which may deny his right of property, until he shall have established his right by regular suit in a Court of Justice, or to the satisfaction of the Board. But in such cases such provision will be made for the intermediate support of the party as the ¹[State Government] may, on the recommendation of the Board, see fit to direct.

Third.—Provided also that, if any zamindar or sadar malguzar shall have been called upon by a Collector or other officer exercising the powers of a Collector to state the highest amount of jama for the payment of which he may be willing to engage, and shall have stated the same accordingly, the sum so stated by such zamindar or sadar malguzar, and not the jama ultimately realized by ²[the State Government], shall form the basis on which his malikana allowance shall be adjusted; and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Revenue-authorities to limit the said allowance to five per cent. on the said sum, or to a portion thereof, according to the extent of the proprietary interest possessed by the said zamindar or sadar malguzar :

Zamindars may be called upon to state jama for which they are willing to engage.

Provided also that, if a zamindar or sadar malguzar, when so called upon, shall fail to specify or tender any sum as aforesaid, then and in that case the net revenue derived by ²[the State Government] from the mahal, on account of the year preceding that in which the Collector or other officer aforesaid may make the said requisition, shall be taken as the sum by which the amount of malikana (not being less than five, nor more than ten, per cent. on the same) shall be adjusted.

6. First.—In cases wherein the existing engagements may be continued under the rule contained in section 2 of this Regulation, it shall and may be lawful for the Collectors, with the sanction of the Board, § * * to enter at any time in the course thereof on a revision of the settlement notwithstanding such continuance of the existing leases, and to adopt such measures as may be requisite for ascertaining and determining the extent and produce of the lands, and the amount of jama properly demandable therefrom, and for procuring and recording the fullest possible information in regard to the rights, interests, privileges and properties of the agricultural community, and to determine the same, with the same powers and authority as they now are or may hereafter be entitled to exercise in forming the settlement of estates open to re-assessment.

Revenue-officers may revise settlement of estates of which existing leases shall be extended under section 2 during continuance of such extended lease.

Second.—The said revision of the settlement shall be made village by village and mahal by mahal; and such number of mahals shall be revised in each year, as the Board, under the orders of the ¹[State Government], may direct.

(Section 7.)

Revision of settlement not to operate to alter jama payable on account of lands included in existing engagements.

Third.—Such revision of the settlement shall not operate to disturb the existing engagements during the period for which they may be continued under the provisions of section 2 of this Regulation in so far as such engagements relate to the amount of jama demandable by Government; but the said engagements shall be held and considered to include only such villages and lands as may be specified in the proceedings or accounts of the settlement last concluded; and, if on the revision of the settlement of any mahal it shall be found that there has been any material error or concealment of lands belonging to such mahal, the Collector shall be authorized, subject to the orders of the Board, separately to assess the lands so withheld from the knowledge of the Revenue-authorities, in the same manner and with the same powers as he would assess an unsettled mahal :

Provided also that nothing in this or the preceding sections shall be construed to prevent the Revenue-officers from passing and enforcing such orders in regard to the rights and interests to be enjoyed by the different classes of persons connected with any mahal, during the period for which the existing settlement has been extended, as they may or shall be authorized to pass or enforce when adjusting the assessment of an unsettled mahal.

Fourth.—[Revision of settlement in Conquered Provinces and Bundelkhand.]—Rep. by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

7. First.—When a Collector ¹* * * [in the Province of Cuttack] shall have completed the revision of the settlement of any mahals under the rules contained in the preceding section, it shall and may be lawful for him, subject to the orders of the Board ²* * * and ³[of the State Government], to grant to the proprietors, if willing to engage on adequate terms, renewed leases for such further term of years subsequent to the year 1234 *Fasli*⁴ or *Aml*i as the ⁵[State Government] may direct.

Jama for years subsequent to 1234, how adjusted.

that the net profits to be derived from the land by the zamindars and others who may be entitled to share in the profits arising out of the limitation of the Government demand will exceed one-fifth of that amount; and in cases wherein any increase may be demanded, the assessment shall be so regulated as to leave the zamindars and others aforesaid a net profit of twenty per cent. on the amount of the jama payable by or through them respectively: no abatement on the existing jama will be allowed unless on the clearest grounds of necessity.

Third.—The pattas granted on such revised settlements shall be held only to secure the malguzars from further demand during the term of their respective leases, on account of the lands specified in it, or described in the settlement rubakari of the Collector with such allowance for error as may be distinctly declared at the time of settlement.

This record shall, in pattidari or bhaiya chara villages or the like, include an accurate register of all the co-parceners, not merely the heads of divisions, such as the pattis, thoks or behris, but also as far as possible of every person who occupies land, disposes of its produce or receives rent as proprietor or as agent for one or more proprietors holding land and disposing of its produce, or receiving the rents of it in common, with a detailed statement of the interior arrangements adopted by the brotherhood for the distribution of the profits derived from sources common to the co-parcency where any such exist, and for determining the share of the Government jama and of the village-expenses which each parcener is to contribute, or the other modes in which the engaging parcener or intermediate pattidars and behridars collect from the cultivators.

And all lakhiraj tenures shall be carefully recorded, with a specification of the nature of the tenure.

The information collected on the above points shall be so arranged and recorded as to admit of an immediate reference Third.—Provided, however, that, if from the number of estates of which the lease may at once expire in any district, or from any other special cause, it shall be found necessary, for the security of the Government revenue, to take engagements from any zamindar, malguzar or farmer, without completing the detailed inquiries above directed, it shall be competent to the ³[Board] of Revenue or other authority exercising the powers of ⁴[that Board] to cause engagements for the revenue to be taken in the manner heretofore in use, reporting the circumstance to the ⁵[State Government], but the term of the engagements so taken shall not exceed five years, and the rules relative to the revision of the settlements of mahals of which the existing leases have been extended under the provisions of section 2 of this Regulation shall be equally applicable to estates for which such engagements shall be taken.

10. First.—Of several parties possessing separate heritable and transferable properties in any parcel of land or in the produce or rent thereof, such properties consisting of interests of different kinds, it shall be competent to the ⁵[State Government] to determine and direct which of such parties shall be admitted to engage for the payment of the Government

Parcels separately owned and occupied may be separately settled.

Provided also that, if the several parties possessing a joint property or separate properties subject to a common obligation as aforesaid, or any of them, shall apply to a Collector or other officer making or revising a settlement to have separate possession of their several share or shares in such joint property, or to be admitted to separate engagements, it shall be competent to such Collector or other officer, with the sanction of the Board or other authority to which he may be subordinate, to make a partition of the property among the different parties according to their respective interests, and to make a separate settlement with each of them or with such as may desire to enter into separate engagements.

(Section 12.)

In estates held under pattidari, bhaiya chara or like tenure Collectors may re-allot revenue and charges payable by several parceners;

12. First.—In cases in which the proportion of the Government jama and village-expenses payable by each proprietor and by each body of proprietors comprised in the several pattis, behris and other divisions of an estate held under pattidari or bhaiya chara tenure or the like may have been originally fixed on a measurement of the lands occupied by each, with reference to the quantity in cultivation, and may be liable by the usage of the country to periodical adjustment on the same principle, if the Collector or other officer making or revising the settlement shall be satisfied, by examination of the patwaris' accounts or otherwise, that the contributions paid by any proprietor, or body of proprietors as aforesaid are materially in excess of the amount justly demandable from them, it shall be competent to him, with the previous sanction of the Board, to cause a new distribution to be made of the revenue and charges payable by each with reference to the above principle, and to such resolutions as ¹[the State Government] may have passed relative to the apportionment of the net rent or profits arising out of the limitation of the Government demand, and in the performance of this duty to employ the kanungo, and such person or persons as he may judge it advisable to appoint, and to settle the jama payable by the different parties according to the award of such person or persons, or otherwise as shall appear to be just and equitable.

and in certain cases may make fresh partition of land.

Second.—In like manner, in cases in which the several proprietors shall be entitled not only to an adjustment from time to time of the jama payable on account of the lands occupied by them, but likewise to a periodical partition of the lands of the village, with reference to the share recorded as belonging to each, it shall be competent to the Collector to cause a fresh partition of the lands and adjustment of the jama to be made as above prescribed, and at the same time to fix and declare the period from which the arrangement as finally settled is to have effect, and to adjust the claims of the parties relative to revenue intermediately paid by them, as may appear equitable :

Provided, however, that no such partition or adjustment shall be final until confirmed by the Board * * * or other authority exercising the powers of the Board :

Cases in which parties affected by Collector's decision may contest it in Court.

Provided also that, if any parties shall dispute the existence of the usage under which the partition of the lands shall have been made, and shall claim to be restored to possession of the lands which the Collector may have transferred to another, or shall consider himself entitled to the benefit of a new partition of the lands comprised in the mahal to which he may belong, in any case in which the Collector may have refused to order it, and, whenever the decision of a Collector for the partition of any land shall be set aside, it will of course belong to the Revenue authorities to re-adjust the jama with reference to the interests of the parties as defined and settled by the final decision of the Courts of Judicature, and to the conditions of the tenure, and to any general or special resolution of ¹[the State Government] relative to the distribution of the net rent or profit arising out of the limitation of the public assessment.

On what points revenue-officer's decision conclusive.

13. Collectors and other officers exercising the powers of Collectors shall not, unless where specially authorised in the manner prescribed in this or some other ²[law], do any act tending to disturb possession, but shall leave the Adalat to investigate in a regular suit all claims of persons not in possession but deeming themselves entitled to be so.

Collectors not to disturb possession unless specially authorized.

14. First.—Collectors making or revising settlements shall, in cases in which any dispute may exist in regard to the nature of the tenure of any person occupying the soil, be competent to declare in an official proceeding, to be incorporated in the rubakari of settlement, the nature and extent of the interests actually possessed by such occupant, referring to the denomination heretofore applied to him only as one means of proof in regard to the nature of the interest, but stating at length, with specification of any examination he may take for his satisfaction, the grounds of his determination ;

Collectors making or revising settlements may declare nature and extent of interests of persons occupying land.

so also in cases of dispute regarding the extent of the interest belonging to any sharer in a village or villages held under pattidari, bhaiya chara or the like tenure, such sharer having actual possession of a portion of such village or villages, or being in the actual receipt as proprietor of a share of the joint profits of the land, it shall be competent to the Collector to decide the point in the first instance in his rubakari of settlement, and to enforce his decision, leaving the party who may deem himself aggrieved to seek redress by a regular suit in the Court to try the right ;

but nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorise the Court to interfere with the decision of the Collector in regard to the amount or proportion of jama to be assessed on any

Second.—The above rule shall not be construed to empower Collectors, unless otherwise authorized, to take cognizance of any claim to receive a larger portion of the common profits than the claimant has hitherto enjoyed, or to hold a larger portion of the village or villages than he has hitherto occupied.

Third.—The decisions passed by the Collectors under the above powers, if not altered or annulled by the Board or ¹[by the State Government], shall be maintained by the Courts, unless on investigation in a regular suit it shall appear that the possession held under such a decision is wrongful ; and nothing herein contained shall be understood to authorise any Court to interfere with the decision of the Revenue-authorities relative to the jama to be assessed on any mahal or portion of a mahal, or to the extent and description of lands belonging to any mahal that may be assigned on the partition of the same to the several parceners concerned.

Fourth.—If any person shall complain to a Collector or other officer making or revising the settlement of any mahal that he has been wrongfully dispossessed from any lands, premises, crops, orchards, pasture-grounds, fisheries, wells, water-courses, tanks, reservoirs or the like, within such mahal, or of the rents, produce or profits of such lands, premises, etc., the like as aforesaid, or that he has been wrongfully disturbed in the possession thereof, it shall be competent to the Collector or other officer aforesaid to inquire into the matter, and, if the party so complaining shall appear to have been in possession in the year preceding that in which the complaint is brought, and there shall otherwise be reason to believe that he has been violently or wrongfully dispossessed or disturbed, it shall be competent to the Collector to restore or confirm him, recording the grounds of his determination in a rubakari ; and the opposite party shall in such case be left to bring a regular suit in Court to try the question of right.

In like manner, should a Collector or other officer as aforesaid find that there exist in any mahal of which he may be making or revising the settlement any disputes, relative to the possession of lands, premises or the like which it may be expedient to adjust, it shall be competent to the Collector or other officer aforesaid to pass a decision determining the point of possession, leaving the question of right, if further disputed, to be settled by the result of a regular suit in the Adalat.

In the settlement of any resumed mahal held or pretended to be held under sanads from the ruling power, or from the amils or other ¹[officers of the Government], whether such lands shall have been heretofore subject to the payment of revenue or otherwise, it shall be competent to the Collector or other officer making the settlement to hear, try and determine all claims to the property and possession of the land comprising such mahal, or the rents or produce thereof, anything in the existing Regulations notwithstanding, and subject to the orders and direction of the Board of Revenue or other authority exercising the powers of that Board to give possession to, and conclude a settlement with, the party who may appear to have the best title, leaving other claimants to establish their claims by a regular suit in the Zila ²* * * Court, by which ³* * * * all decisions passed by the Revenue-authorities under the section may, on such suit being fully heard, sued and, determined, and not otherwise, be revised, annulled or altered.

In settling resumed mahals Collectors may take cognizance of claims to property therein; and may give possession to parties appearing to have best title.

Bengal Regulation VI of 1823.

(The Bengal Indigo Contracts Regulation, 1823.)¹

SUPPLEMENTED	...	{ Ben. Regn. V of 1830. Act X of 1836.
SHORT TITLE GIVEN	...	Act I of 1903.
REPEALED IN PART	...	Act X of 1836. Act VII of 1870. Act XVI of 1874. Act XII of 1876. Act I of 1903.
REPEALED IN PART AND AMENDED		Act XII of 1891.

(10th July, 1823.)

A Regulation for authorizing the institution of summary suits to enforce the execution of certain written engagements for the cultivation and delivery of the indigo-plant, and for declaring certain principles in regard to the same.

1. The poverty of the lower orders in India, and particularly of those employed in agriculture, occasions the general use of borrowed capital for the production of the chief articles of trade and consumption.

Preamble.

The capitalist advances his money, and sometimes the seed likewise, upon a contract to receive the produce of a defined quantity of land, either at a certain fixed price, or at rates to be subsequently determined with reference to the market price at a specified season ; and this system is understood generally to prevail in the Province of Bengal in the cultivation of the plant from which the indigo-dye is extracted.

According to the existing Regulations, if the contracting *raiya*t should fail to cultivate the land in the manner specified, or, having so cultivated the land, should sell the produce to another, or otherwise defraud his creditor, and fail to execute his contract by delivery of the stipulated article, the person with whom he has so contracted has no other remedy than a regular action for the recovery of the penalty conditioned in the agreement.

It is usual for the Courts of Justice, in decreeing such causes, to award such limited penalty as may, in each instance, appear to be a fair compensation to the person making the advances for the non-employment of his capital.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was enacted for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the concluding paragraph of sec. 1.

It has been declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), s. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 5, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district.

(Section 2.)

In the absence, however, of any rule for the regulation of the discretion thus assumed, much confusion has arisen from the conflicting opinions and judgments of the several judicial officers as to the extent of penalty recoverable on agreements of this nature.

It seems reasonable, also, that the person who advances seed and capital, or capital only, for the expenses of cultivation on a defined parcel of land, should be considered to possess a lien and interest in the indigo-plant produced, on that land, when so stipulated in a written engagement between the parties and especially in cases in which such written engagement may have been duly registered * * * ; and that it should not be in the power of a raiyat, who has already conditioned for the delivery of the produce of his land to one person, to break the condition by a clandestine and fraudulent transfer of such produce to another.

The system at present in force provides, as above observed, no other remedy for parties injured by this dishonest practice than by a regular action in the Civil Court.

The difficulty and delay of obtaining redress by that course have not unfrequently led to acts of violence, and even to serious affrays ; and the more frequent occurrence of such affrays is to be apprehended in consequence of the eager competition which now prevails amongst the indigo-manufacturers in some parts of Bengal, arising from the unusually high price of indigo.

The Governor General in Council has in consequence judged it expedient to declare the principles on which the points above stated shall be settled, and to provide for the more prompt adjustment of disputes and enforcement of contracts of the nature above specified ; and the following rules have accordingly been passed, to take effect in the several districts comprised within the Province of Bengal from the date of their promulgation.

2. If any person shall have given advances to a raiyat, or other cultivator of the soil, under a written engagement, stipulating for the cultivation of indigo-plant on a portion of land of certain defined limits, and for the delivery of the produce to himself, or at a specified factory or place, such person shall be considered to have a lien or interest in the indigo-plant produced on such land, and shall be entitled to avail himself of the process hereinafter provided for the protection of his interests and for the due execution of the conditions of the contract.

When persons making advances for cultivation of indigo-plant on certain land have lien on, or interest in, its produce.

¹Portion repealed by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891), is omitted.

²The words and figures "under the provisions of Regulation 20 of 1812," which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1876 (XII of 1876), are omitted.

of 1823.]

(Section 3.)

3. First.—If any person, who may have made advances on conditions of the nature above described, shall have just reason to believe that an individual under engagement with him is evading or is about to evade the execution of his contract, by making away with and disposing of the produce otherwise than as stipulated, or that he has engaged secretly or openly to supply the same to another, it shall be competent to such person to present a petition of complaint to the Zila ¹* * Judge ²* * * within whose local jurisdiction the land stipulated to be cultivated with the indigo-plant may be situated, filing with the same the original deed of engagement by which the produce may be assigned and engaged to be delivered to himself or at his factory, and certifying in his petition that such deed was voluntarily and bona fide executed by the individual complained against.

Such person how to proceed when he has just reason to believe that raiyat will dispose of produce otherwise than stipulated.

Second.—On such petition and original deed of engagement being filed, a summons, or talab chitthi, shall be immediately issued through the nazir in the usual form, requiring the individual named in the petition to attend and answer to the complaint, either in person or by an authorized agent, within such specified period as may in each instance appear reasonable, and which period shall in no case exceed twenty days.

Summons for attendance of defendant.

Third.—The officer entrusted with the execution of the process shall also be instructed to affix a copy of the summons in the village cutcherry or other place of public resort, and to erect a bamboo on the specific parcel of ground on account of which the claim may have been preferred, and which it shall be the duty of the plaintiff or his agent to point out.

Summons how served;

By these means sufficient public notice of the claim will be given to enable persons desirous of contesting the plaintiff's right, or of establishing a prior right to the produce of the land, to appear either in person or by an authorized agent before the Court for that purpose, and the failure so to attend, before the summary decision be passed, will be held to bar the claim of any third party founded on any contract for the produce of the land in question, unless it be established by a regular suit.

and public notice of claim how given.

Fourth.—If the officer serving the process shall not be able to execute it on the person of the defendant, he shall nevertheless publish the claim in the manner above directed, and if the defendant shall not appear to answer to the complaint within the period specified in the summons, and no other claim be referred in bar of that of the plaintiff, the Judge ³* * shall, after taking evidence to establish the deed and other allegations of the plaintiff, proceed to the adjudication of the claim, in the same manner as if the defendant had personally appeared.

On non-appearance of defendant or other claimants, evidence to be taken, and case decided ex parte.

¹The words "or City" which were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (XVI of 1874), are omitted.

²The words "or to a registrar exercising the powers of a Magistrate" were repealed, ibid.

³The words "or other officer" which were repealed by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891), are omitted.

(Section 3.)

In what cases award shall be passed, adjudging plaintiff's right to produce.

Fifth.—If the defendant or his authorized agent should attend within the period specified, and should deny the execution of the deed of engagement filed by the complainant, proof of the same shall be taken ; and if its voluntary execution be established to the satisfaction of the Court ¹* * * * and no preferable claim be established by a third party, a summary award shall be made, adjudging to the plaintiff the right of receiving the crops according to the terms of the agreement.

The same principle shall be applied if the engagement be admitted and no satisfactory reason be shown why the defendant should not be held to the performance of his contract.

If claim be not established, plaintiff to pay costs and compensation to defendant.

Sixth.—If it be proved that the engagement was not duly and voluntarily executed by the defendant, or if it should appear that the proceeding is otherwise litigious and oppressive, and the claim unfounded, or that the plaintiff had no sufficient cause to warrant his application to the Court, the complaint shall be dismissed, and the plaintiff shall be made liable to the payment of costs and such reasonable sum in addition as may seem to the Judge ²* * * * a proper compensation to the defendant for any trouble and annoyance to which he may have been subjected.

Notice to third parties in what cases, and their claims how investigated.

Seventh.—If it should appear in the course of the inquiry that the defendant is under engagement for the same land to a third party, notice shall immediately be issued for that party to appear and plead, either in person or by vakil ; and if such person or any third party shall, previously to the decision of the case, come forward and produce a similar deed of engagement, stipulating for the produce of the same portion of land, the Judge ²* * * * shall, after such summary investigation as may be necessary, determine whether either of the parties have any just claim to the produce of the land, and, if so which of them may have the prior and better claim ; a preference will of course be given to engagements duly registered ³* * * *

The result of such investigation shall be recorded, and a decree passed adjudging the question of right between the parties.

Defendant not to be subjected to unnecessary detention.

Eighth.—No defendant who may attend under the process described in this section shall be confined in jail, or be in any manner detained, longer than may suffice to take his answer to the claim and to obtain from him such further explanations as the nature of the answer may suggest.

¹The words "or other tribunal trying the case" were repealed, by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).

²The words "or other officer trying the case," which were repealed, by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891), are omitted.

of 1823.]

(Sections 4, 5.)

Ninth.—If, pending, the summary inquiry in the manner above directed, it shall appear that the plant on the ground is in a state fit to be cut, and will be injured or destroyed if not cut, it shall in such case be competent to the Judge ¹* * * * to pass an order for the delivery of the plant to either of the parties provided that the said party consents and engages to pay to the other claimant (if the summary award should be ultimately in favour of the latter) a specific pecuniary compensation ;

In what cases order may issue to deliver plant to a party, before summary inquiry completed.

the amount of such compensation shall be fixed by the Judge ² * in communication with the parties, and shall be regulated with reference to the estimated produce of the ground, and to the probable value of such produce when manufactured ; and the amount, when so fixed, shall be carefully recorded on the proceedings.

4. First.—Any person in whose favour a summary award shall have been passed for the produce of any defined spot of land shall be entitled to place a watch over the same, and to prevent the cutting and removal of the plant in any manner contrary to the stipulations of his agreement ; and, in the event of any attempt being made to cut or remove the plant, it shall be competent to the person holding the decree to apply to the nearest police daroga and to claim from him the assistance of the police in preventing such removal ;

it shall, moreover, be the duty of the police-officers and of all other officers on such a decree being exhibited, to aid the person in whose favour it may have been passed to the utmost of their power.

Second.—In order that the foregoing rule may not operate to the prejudice of the landholders, who ³* * * * are authorized to attach the crops for the realization of rents justly due to them, it is hereby provided that, whenever any manufacturer, who may have obtained an award under the foregoing rules, may cause the plant to be cut and taken away, he shall be held responsible, conjointly with the raiyat, for any arrear of rent which may have been due on account of the specific parcel of ground from which the indigo-plant may have been taken.

Security for rent due to landholders how provided.

5. First.—In cases in which a raiyat who may have received advances and entered into written agreements for the cultivation and delivery of indigo-plant, in the manner indicated in this Regulation, shall have failed to cultivate the ground specified, or, having cultivated it, shall have failed or refused to complete his engagement, or shall have sold, made away with,

Penalty in regular suits where breach of contract not ascribable to fraud or dishonesty.

Fourth.—If no fraud or dishonest dealing be established, and the failure of a *raiya*t or other contractor to execute the stipulations of his engagement by the delivery of indigo-plant in the manner stipulated be owing to accident, or to any cause not implying fraud or dishonesty, the penalty to be adjudged against a contractor shall not exceed three times the sum advanced as the consideration for executing the deed, including interest.

Investigations how and by whom conducted.

6. ¹* * investigations under this Regulation shall be conducted according to the form and in the manner prescribed for the conduct of ¹* * suits for arrears of rent ²* * * . It shall ² * be competent to any person whose claim under a deed of engagement for the cultivation and delivery of indigo plant may have been set aside ³* * , or who may be otherwise dissatisfied with the decision passed on ¹ * ⁴[an investigation] under the foregoing provisions, to institute a regular suit for the recovery of the penalty stipulated in the deed of engagement, or for the establishment of any other claim or interest to which he may deem himself entitled.

A Regulation for extending the operation of Regulation VII, 1822², for authorizing the Revenue-authorities to let in farm estates under temporary leases, on the default of the malguzars, or to hold the same khas for a term of years; for modifying and adding to the rules contained in Regulation II, 1819³; and for making certain other amendments in the existing Regulations.

1. Whereas the provisions of Regulation VII, 1822², are in force only [within the Ceded and Conquered Provinces, in the district of Cuttack, and] in the pargana of Pataspur and its dependencies ; Preamble.

And whereas there are within the other Provinces belonging to this Presidency various mahals and tracts for which a permanent settlement has not yet been concluded, and it appears to be advisable that the Revenue-authorities should be vested, in regard to such mahals and tracts, with the same powers as belong to the like officers within the Ceded and Conquered Provinces ;

And whereas, a frequent recourse to the sale of lands for the recovery of arrears of revenue in districts of which the assessment has not been fixed in perpetuity being inexpedient, it appears to be necessary and proper that the Revenue-authorities should be empowered to let in farm for a term of years the estates of defaulters under temporary leases, or to hold the same khas for the purpose of making a raiayatwar settlement, where that measure may be deemed advisable ;

And whereas it has appeared to be expedient to modify and to add to the provisions contained in Regulation II, 1819¹ ; ²*

* * * * *

The following rules have been enacted, to be in force from the date of their promulgation, within the ³[territories] belonging to the Presidency of Fort William.

2. First.—The provisions contained in clause Sixth, section 2, and in the thirty-three following sections of Regulation VII, 1822⁴, are hereby extended to all lands (including jagirs, mukarraris and other tenures held free of assessment or at a quit-rent under special grant) not included within the limits of estates for which a permanent settlement has been concluded in the manner prescribed by Regulation VIII, 1793⁵, ⁶* * as far as the same may be applicable.

Provisions of Regulation VII, 1822, extended to lands not within limits of permanently settled estates.

To be in force in estate held khas;

and applicable to Sundarbans, etc.

Second.—The said provisions shall likewise be in force in all estates which may now or hereafter be held khas, during the period for which they may be so managed.

Third.—The provisions aforesaid shall also apply to the Sundarbans, [the hill lands of Bhagolpur,] and other extensive forests and wastes, not included within the limits of parganas, mauzas or other revenue divisions, specified at the time of settlements as belonging to the mahals then assessed, as well as to all estates bordering on such forests or wastes.

Procedure when arrear of revenue on account of mahals not permanently assessed is not paid within one month after due date, and objections appear to public sale.

In such cases, if the mahal shall yield a higher jama than that for which the malguzars may have engaged, the excess shall in the first place be appropriated to the liquidation of the arrear due on account of it, or such portion thereof as the farmer may not have separately agreed to discharge or as may not otherwise have been recovered; and, out of any surplus remaining, the malguzars shall receive such malikana, not being less than

SUPPLEMENTED	{ Ben. Act IV of 1868. Ben. Act V of 1920.
SHORT TITLE GIVEN	Act V of 1897.
REPEALED IN PART	{ Act VIII of 1885. Act I of 1903.
ADAPTED			(a) The Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937. (b) The Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(26th May 1825.)

A Regulation for declaring the rules to be observed in determining claims to lands gained by alluvion, or by dereliction of a river or the sea.

1. In consequence of the frequent changes which take place in the channel of the principal rivers that intersect the ²[territories] immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort William and the shifting of the sands which lie in the beds of those rivers, chars or small islands are often thrown up by alluvion in the midst of the stream, or near one of the banks, and large portions of land are carried away by an encroachment of the river on one side, whilst accessions of land are at the same time, or in subsequent years, gained by dereliction of the water on the opposite side; similar instances of alluvion, encroachment and dereliction also sometimes occur on the sea-coast which borders the southern and south-eastern limits of Bengal.

Preamble.

The lands gained from the rivers or sea by the means above-mentioned are a frequent source of contention and affray, and although the law and custom of the country have established rules applicable to such cases, these rules not being generally known, the Courts of Justice have sometimes found it difficult to determine the rights of litigant parties claiming chars or other lands gained in the manner above described.

¹This Regulation shall stand repealed with the coming into force of clause (f) of section 59 of the West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955 (West Bengal Act X of 1956).

²SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897).

LOCAL EXTENT.—[This Regulation was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the concluding paragraph of sec. I.

It has been declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely:—

West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district, and the Tarai, in the Darjeeling district.

³Substituted for the word "Provinces" by para. 3 and the Sixth Schedule of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(Sections 2—4.)

The Court of Sadar Diwani Adalat, with a view to ascertain the legal provisions of the Muhammadan and Hindu laws on this subject, called for reports from their law officers of each persuasion, and on consideration of the reports furnished by the law officers in consequence, as well as of the decisions which have been passed by the Court of Sadar Diwani Adalat in cases brought before them in appeal which involved the rights of claimants to lands gained by alluvion, or by dereliction of rivers or the sea, the Governor-General in Council has deemed it proper to enact the following rules for the general information of individuals as well as for the guidance of Courts of Judicature ; to be in force, as soon as promulgated throughout the whole of the ¹[territories] subject to the Presidency of Fort William.

Claims and disputes as to alluvial lands to be decided by usage when clearly recognised and established.

2. Whenever any clear and definite usage of shikast paiwast respecting the disjunction and junction of land by the encroachment or recess of a river may have been immemorially established for determining the rights of the proprietors of two or more contiguous estates divided by a river (such as that the main channel of the river dividing the estates shall be the constant boundary between them, whatever changes may take place in the course of the river, by encroachment on one side and accession on the other), the usage so established shall govern the decision of all claims and disputes relative to alluvial land between the parties whose estates may be liable to such usage.

Where no usage established, claims how decided.

3. Where there may be no local usage of the nature referred to in the preceding section, the general rules declared in the following section shall be applied to the determination of all claims and disputes relative to lands gained by alluvion or by dereliction either of a river or the sea.

Lands gained by gradual accession from recess of river or sea.

4. First.—When land may be gained by gradual accession, whether from the recess of a river or of the sea, it shall be considered an increment to the tenure of the person to whose land or estate it is thus annexed, whether such land or estate be held immediately from ²[the Government] by a zamindar or other superior landholder, or as a subordinate tenure by any description of under-tenant whatever :

Extent of interest in increment of person in possession.

Provided that the increment of land thus obtained shall not entitle the person in possession of the estate or tenure to which the land may be annexed to a right of property or permanent interest therein beyond that possessed by him in the estate or tenure to which the land may be annexed, and shall not in any ²The words "the Crown" were substituted for the word "Government" by para. 3 and Sch. XIV of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, and the word "Government" was subsequently substituted for the word "Crown" by para. 4(1) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

case be understood to exempt the holder of it from the payment to ¹[the Government] of any assessment for the public revenue to which it may be liable under the provisions of Regulation II, 1819², or of any other Regulation in force.

³Nor, if annexed to a subordinate tenure held under a superior landholder, shall the under-tenant, whether a khudkasht raiyat, holding a maurusi istimrari tenure at a fixed rate of rent per bigha, or any other description of under-tenant liable by his engagements, or by established usage, to an increase of rent for the land annexed to his tenure by alluvion, be considered exempt from the payment of any increase of rent to which he may be justly liable.

Second.—The above rule shall not be considered applicable to cases in which a river, by a sudden change of its course, may break through and intersect an estate, without any gradual encroachment, or may by the violence of stream separate a considerable piece of land from one estate and join it to another estate, without destroying the identity and preventing the recognition of the land so removed.

When river by sudden change of course intersects estate.

In such cases the land, on being clearly recognised, shall remain the property of its original owner.

Third.—When a char or island may be thrown up in a large navigable river (the bed of which is not the property of an individual), or in the sea, and the channel of the river or sea between such island and the shore may not be fordable, it shall, according to established usage, be at the disposal of ¹[the Government].

Chars thrown up in navigable river.

But if the channel between such island and the shore be fordable at any season of the year, it shall be considered an accession to the land, tenure or tenures of the person or persons whose estate or estates may be most contiguous to it, subject to the several provisions specified in the first clause of this section with respect to increment of land by gradual accession.

Property therein when channel fordable.

Fourth.—In small and shallow rivers, the beds of which, with the jalkar right of fishery, may have been heretofore recognised as the property of individuals, any sand-bank or char that may be thrown up shall, as hitherto belong to the proprietor of the bed of the river, subject to the provisions stated in the first clause of the present section.

Chars, etc., thrown up in small shallow rivers.

²The Bengal Land-revenue Assessment (Resumed Lands) Regulation, 1819.

³This paragraph of section 4, clause First, is repealed by sec. 2(1) of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (VIII of 1885), in the whole of the former Province of Bengal "except the town of Calcutta, the Division of Orissa and the Scheduled Districts". The extension of the repeal to Scheduled Districts depends upon the terms of notifications extending the Act of 1885 to such districts. Under the terms of the notification extending the Act of 1885 to the Jalpaiguri district, the repeal has taken effect in that district.

(Section 5.)

Disputes relative to lands gained by alluvion or by dereliction not provided for by Regulation.

Bengal Regulation XIII of 1825

[The Bengal Land-revenue Settlement (Resumed Kanungos and Revenue-free Lands) Regulation, 1825.]¹

SHORT TITLE GIVEN	...	Act I of 1903.
REPEALED IN PART AND AMENDED		Act XII of 1891.
AMENDED	...	Act I of 1903.
		(a) The Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
ADAPTED		(b) The Indian Independence (Adaptation of Bengal and Punjab Acts) Order, 1948.
		(c) The Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(7th July 1825.)

A Regulation [to maintain the settlement made for certain lands held exempt from the payment of revenue by kanungos in the Province of Bihar; and] to provide for the future settlement [of such lands, as well as] of the lands composing other resumed lakhiraj tenures, with the present occupants, when so directed by Government.

1. [Whereas it was enacted by section 5, Regulation II of 1816², that the revenue of lands held by kanungos generally in the Province of Bihar, in virtue of their offices, should be liable to resumption; and accordingly under that law, various resumptions of land so held took place, and the parties to whom the zamindari interest in the same appeared to belong were admitted to engage for the Government revenue; but, on the consideration of the proceedings held under the provisions of the above rule, it appeared to the Governor-General in Council to be improper wholly to deprive the kanungos or their representatives of the advantages derived from such lands, and enjoyed by them for a long course of years; and it was accordingly resolved by Government, on the 14th February, 1822, that in cases where the lands had been occupied and managed by the kanungos or their representatives, and the rents received by them, they should be replaced in possession of such lands, and a settlement made with them on the principle prescribed by clause Second, section 6, Regulation XIX of 1793,³ namely, the revenue to be paid to Government to be equal to one-half of the annual produce (or rental) of the lands, calculated

Preamble.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the concluding paragraph of sec. 1.

It has been declared by the Laws Local Extent 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6 to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri in the Jalpaiguri district.

according to the rates at which other lands in the pargana of a similar description may be assessed, securing to the proprietors of the soil such malikana or other allowance as they might have received prior to the resumption of the official minha tenure;

And whereas the existing laws relative to the settlement of resumed lakhiraj tenures are not properly applicable to the case, and it appears to be expedient expressly to provide for the maintenance by the Courts of Judicature of the arrangement above described, in order that the kanungo minhadars may be secured in the possession (subject to the quit-rent fixed by Government) of the lands, rents and produce heretofore possessed by them;]

And whereas it is desirable to provide for the settlement, on the same principle, of any lands that may be resumed under the corresponding rules relating to kanungos and their official tenures in other parts of the country ;

And whereas it appears to be generally expedient to make a distinct provision for securing to the holders of lakhiraj lands resumed by the officers of Government, and assessed on the principle prescribed in clause Second, section 8, Regulation XIX, 1793¹, the benefits which that law was designed to bestow, and to declare the competency of Government, in other cases, to continue the persons who have heretofore occupied lands free of assessment, or their representatives, in the possession of the same, notwithstanding such lands being made subject to assessment ;

The following rules have been enacted for these purposes respectively, to be in force throughout the territories subject to the Presidency of Fort William from the date of the promulgation of this Regulation.

2. In case of lakhiraj tenures resumed under the provisions of Regulation 2* * * V, 1816,² or any other Regulation in force relative to lands held by kanungos by virtue of their offices, where the minha or lakhiraj tenure, and the right of property in the land, are vested in distinct parties, it shall be competent to the ⁴[State Government] by instruction to the Revenue Board or other authority empowered to make the resumption, to continue the minhadars and their heirs in possession and management of such lands, subject to such assessment as [it] shall judge it proper to direct; and the parties claiming the zamindari interest or other proprietary right in such mahals shall not be entitled to any land-rent, produce or profit beyond what they may have enjoyed up to the period of the resumption of the tenure, or would have been entitled to receive, in the event of Government having confirmed the same in perpetuity, free of assessment.

Persons, consequently, claiming to be maliks of the said lands, who, during the continuance of the lakhiraj tenure, had not possession of the same, whether they received a malikana allowance or otherwise, shall not disturb the possession of the minhadars or their heirs and representatives, in any case wherein the [State Government] may have sanctioned such possession; and any suit preferred by such persons in a Court of Judicature to recover possession, contrary to the intent and meaning of this rule, shall be dismissed with costs :

Provided, however, that in all cases of the nature above mentioned, wherein the zamindar or other proprietor of the land may have received malikana or other proprietary due during the existence of the lakhiraj tenure, he shall continue to receive the same, notwithstanding the resumption of the lakhiraj, in like manner as if such resumption had not taken place.

3. The tenures of the minhadars which have been confirmed to them with the sanction of Government by the arrangement referred to in the preamble of this Regulation, or which may be so confirmed in conformity with the preceding section, are declared to be hereditary and transferable ; but, should they escheat [to the Government], the parties possessing a zamindari interest or other proprietary right in the lands will be admitted to engage for the revenue subject to a fresh assessment to be adjusted on the actual assets under the general [law].

Tenures of minhadars so situated declared hereditary and transferable.

4. The principles of sections 2 and 3 of this Regulation shall be considered applicable to all cases of lakhiraj resumption under the general Regulations in force, which may come within the favourable rule of assessment contained in the second clause of section 8, Regulation XIX, 1793⁵ in the [States] of Foregoing sections applied to certain lakhiraj resumptions.

A Regulation for constituting Commissioners of Revenue and Circuit * * *

Preamble.

1. The system in operation for superintending the magistracy and the police, and for controlling and directing the executive Revenue-officers, who in several cases are also Magistrates, has been found to be defective.

The Provincial Courts of Appeal and Circuit, as now constituted, partly from the extent of country placed under their authority, and partly from their having to discharge the duties of both civil and criminal tribunals, have, in many cases, failed to afford that prompt administration of justice which it is the duty of Government to secure for the people.

The gaol-deliveries have been, in some instances, delayed beyond the term prescribed by law, [especially in the division of Bareilly, which comprises thirteen stations at which gaol-deliveries have to be held, beside the joint magistracies of Bila and Sirpura,] and a great arrear of cases under appeal has accrued in all the Courts, to the manifest injury of many individuals and to the encouragement of litigation and crime.

The Judges of Circuit, when employed singly in the districts under their authority, do not possess sufficient powers, nor have they the opportunity of acquiring sufficient local knowledge, to enable them adequately to control the police or protect the people.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the concluding paragraph of sec. 1.

It has been declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely:—

West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district; and the Western Hills, the Tarai and the Dumson Subdivision, in the Darjeeling district:

²The rest of the title was repealed by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), and is omitted,

(Section 2.)

The great extent of country under each of the Boards of Revenue has similarly operated to impede them in the execution of the duties which belong to them as tribunals for the determination of all questions relative to the assessment of lands under settlement and for the judicial decision of many other important cases, as the general guardians of the fiscal interests of the State, as directors and superintendents over the executive officers, and as the confidential advisers of Government.

For the correction of the above defects, it has appeared to be expedient and necessary to place the magistracy and police, and the Collectors and other executive Revenue-officers under the superintendence and control of Commissioners of Revenue and Circuit, each vested with the charge of such a moderate tract of country as may enable them to be easy of access to the people, and frequently to visit the different parts of their respective jurisdictions; to confide to the said Commissioners the powers * * * that belong to the Boards of Revenue, to be exercised, with the modifications hereinafter provided, * * * under the instructions and control of a Sadar or Chief Board of Revenue, * * *.

With the above views and purposes the Governor General in Council has enacted the following rules to be in force from the 1st Mach, 1829, throughout the ³[territories] immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort William.

2. A Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit shall be appointed for each of the under-mentioned divisions :

Provided, however, that ³* * * it shall be competent to the ⁴[State Government by an order], to transfer any district or districts from one division to another, and to increase or reduce the number of Commissioners, if such a measure shall appear to be necessary or expedient; due notice of any such arrangement being given by public proclamation.

²Substituted for the word "Provinces" by para. 3 and the Sixth Schedule of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

³The words "subject to the provisions of section 246 of the Government of India Act, 1935," which were inserted by para. 3 and Schedule XIV of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, were omitted, ibid.

Bengal Regulation XVII of 1829

(The Bengal Sati Regulation, 1829.)¹

SHORT TITLE GIVEN	Act V of 1897.
REPEALED IN PART	Act XVII of 1862.
ADAPTED	The Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(4th December, 1829.)

A Regulation for declaring the practice of sati or of burning or burying alive the widows of Hindus illegal and punishable by the Criminal Courts.

1. The practice of sati or of burning or burying alive the widows of Hindus is revolting to the feelings of human nature ; it is nowhere enjoined by the religion of the Hindus as an imperative duty ; on the contrary, a life of purity and retirement on the part of the widow is more especially and preferably inculcated, and by a vast majority of that people throughout India the practice is not kept up nor observed : in some extensive districts it does not exist ; in those in which it has been more frequent it is notorious that in many instances acts of atrocity have been perpetrated which have been shocking to the Hindus themselves and in their eyes unlawful and wicked. Preamble.

The measures hitherto adopted to discourage and prevent such acts have failed of success, and the Governor General in Council is deeply impressed with the conviction that the abuses in question cannot be effectually put an end to without abolishing the practice altogether.

Actuated by these considerations, the Governor General in Council, without intending to depart from one of the first and most important principles of the system of ²* Government in India, that all classes of the people be secure in the observance of their religious usages, so long as that system can be adhered to without violation of the paramount dictates of justice and humanity, has deemed it right to establish the following rules, which are hereby enacted to be in force from the time of their promulgation throughout the territories immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort William.

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1897 (V of 1897).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Regulation was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the concluding paragraph of sec. 1.

It has been declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri and the Western Duars, in the Jalpaiguri district.

An Act for better enforcing the attendance of proprietors and farmers of land before Collectors of land-revenue in the Lower Provinces of the Bengal Presidency.

Whereas, by sundry Regulations of the Bengal Code, provision is made for the imposition of a daily fine by the Board of Revenue or other authority exercising the powers of that Board on any proprietor or farmer of land, subject to the provisions contained in the said several Regulations, who, when duly summoned by the Collector or other officer exercising the powers of Collector, shall omit or refuse to attend, or to cause his officer or agent to attend, or to furnish the accounts or document required, and shall not show sufficient cause for such omission ; and it is further provided that the fine, when confirmed by Government, is to be levied by the same process as is prescribed for the recovery of arrears of revenue ;

¹Act XXXI of 1858

(The Bengal Alluvial Land Settlement Act, 1858)²

SHORT TITLE GIVEN ... Act I of 1903.

REPEALED IN PART ... Act I of 1903.

(24th August 1858.)

An Act to make further provision for the settlement of land gained by alluvion in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Whereas for the removal of doubts respecting the course proper to be followed in the settlement of land added by alluvial accession to estates paying revenue to Government, it is expedient to lay down certain rules to be observed in the settlement of such land ; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

1. When land added by alluvial accession to an estate paying revenue to Government becomes liable to assessment, if it be so agreed on between the Revenue-authorities and the proprietor or proprietors, the revenue assessed upon the alluvial land may be added to the jama of the original estate ; and in such case a new engagement shall be executed for the payment of the aggregate amount, and that amount shall be substituted in the Collector's rent-roll for the former jama of the original estate.

Addition of revenue assessed upon alluvial land to jama of original estate.

If the proprietor or proprietors object to such an arrangement, or if the Revenue-authorities are of opinion that a settlement of the alluvial land cannot properly be made for the same term as the existing settlement of the original estate, the alluvial land shall be assessed and settled as a separate estate with a separate jama, and shall thenceforward be regarded and treated as in all respects separate from and independent of the original estate, whether the separate settlement be made with the proprietor or proprietors or the land be let in farm in consequence of the refusal of the proprietor or proprietors to accept the terms of settlement.

When separate settlement to be made.

The separate settlement may be permanent, if the settlement of the original estate is permanent.

2. Nothing contained in the preceding section shall affect the rights of any under-tenant in any alluvial land under the provisions of clause 1, section 4, Regulation XI, 1825³.

Rights of under-tenants in alluvial land.

¹This Act shall stand repealed with the coming into force of clause (3) of section 59 of the West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955 (West Bengal Act X of 1956).

²SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Act was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the title.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec. 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district.

³The Bengal Alluvion and Diluvion Regulation, 1825.

[Act XXI of 1858.]

(Section 3.)

It shall be the duty of all officers making settlements of such land, whether the land be settled separately or incorporated with the original estate, to ascertain and record all such rights according to the rules prescribed in Regulation VII, 1822¹; and to determine whether any and what additional rent shall be payable in respect of the alluvial land by the person or persons entitled to any under-tenure in the original estate.

The provisions of the said Regulation¹, so far as the same may be applicable, are hereby declared to extend to all settlements made under this Act.

3. [Separate settlements heretofore made ; saving of rights.—Rep. by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).]

SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (1 of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Act applied originally to the whole of Bengal as constituted in 1859 (see the title and section 3). But it has been repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (VIII of 1885), sec. 2 (1), everywhere except “the town of Calcutta, the Division of Orissa and the Scheduled Districts”.

The extension of the repeal to Scheduled Districts depends upon the terms of notifications extending the Act of 1885 to such districts. Under the terms of the notifications extending the Act of 1885 to the Jalpaiguri district, the repeal has taken effect in that district.

The only portion of the present West Bengal in which Act X of 1859 appears to be in force is the Darjeeling district.

(4th May, 1859.)

An Act to improve the law relating to sales of land for arrears of revenue in the Lower Provinces under the Bengal Presidency.

[Whereas it is expedient to discontinue the practice of obtaining the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue to sales of estates for arrears of revenue, or other demands of Government, in the Province of Cuttack ;]

Preamble.

and whereas it is just that a person having a lien upon an estate, and paying the money necessary to protect it from sale for arrears of revenue, should be reasonably secured ;

and whereas it is expedient to afford shares in estates, who duly pay their shares of the sadar jama of their estates, easy means of protecting their shares from sale by reason of the default of their co-sharers ;

¹SHORT TITLE.—This short title was given by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903).

LOCAL EXTENT.—This Act was passed for the whole of the former Province of Bengal—see the title and the concluding paragraph of sec. 1, but was declared by sec. 62 to extend only to such parts of that Province as are subject to the general Regulations.

It has been declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), sec. 6, to be in force throughout the former Province of Bengal, except as regards the Scheduled Districts.

It has been declared, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec 3, to be in force in West Jalpaiguri, in the Jalpaiguri district.

It has been extended, by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), sec 5, to the following Scheduled Districts, namely :—

the Western Duars, in the Jalpaiguri district ; and the Darjeeling district.

(Sections 1—4.)

and whereas it is expedient to afford landholders, particularly absentees, facilities in guarding against the accidental sale of their estates for arrears of revenue by reason of the neglect or fraud of their agents ;

and it is therefore proper, for the above and other purposes, to improve the law relating to sales of land for arrears of revenue in the Provinces of Bengal, [Bihar and Orissa ;]

It is enacted as follows :

1. [Laws repealed.—Rep. by the Repealing Act, 1870 (XIV of 1870).]

“Arrear of revenue”
defined.

2. If the whole or a portion of a kist or instalment of any month of the era according to which the settlement and kist-bandi of any mahal have been regulated be unpaid on the first of the following month of such era, the sum so remaining unpaid shall be considered an arrear of revenue.

Latest day
payment.

3. Upon the promulgation of this Act the Board of Revenue at Calcutta shall determine upon what dates all arrears of revenue and all demands which, by the Regulations and Acts in force, are directed to be realised in the same manner as arrears of revenue, shall be paid up in each district under their jurisdiction, in default of which payment the estates in arrear in those districts, except as hereinafter provided, shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder.

And the said Board shall give notice of the dates so fixed in the Official Gazette, and shall direct corresponding publication to be made, as far as regards each district in the language of that district, in the office of the Collector or other officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act, in the Courts of the Judge, Magistrate (or Joint Magistrate, as the case may be), and Munsifs, and at every thana-station of that district ; and the dates so fixed shall not be changed except by the said Board by advertisement and notification in the manner above described, to be issued at least three months before the close of the official year preceding that in which the new date is, or dates are, to take effect.

4. [In Sylhet, personal property of defaulters may in the first instance be distrained and sold.—Rep. by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).]

¹ The preamble beginning with “and whereas it is expedient to provide for the voluntary registration of dependent taluks” and ending with “held at rents sufficient for the security of the revenue ;” were omitted by sec 3 of the Bengal Land-revenue Sales (West Bengal Amendment) Act, 1950 (West Ben. No sale shall take place until the officer conducting the sale has satisfied himself that the notification of sale has been duly published and the notices of sale have been sent to proprietors by registered post but the omission to serve such notice on any proprietor or any defect in the service of any such notice shall not by itself be a ground for the annulment of a sale under this Act.]

19A. Where any person on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fee thereon, if, within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produces the probate or letters to the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority ¹[for the local area] in which the probate or letters has or have been granted, and delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and if such authority is satisfied that a greater fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required, the said Authority may—

- (a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letters, if such stamp has not been already cancelled ;
- (b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon ; and
- (c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

Relief where debts due from a deceased person have been paid out of his estate.

19B. Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of such Authority that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Relief in case of several grants.

19C. Whenever ²* a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(Chapter IIIA.—Probates, Letters of Administration and Certificates of Administration.—Sections 19D, 19E.)

Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

19D. The probate of the will, or the letters of administration of the effects, of any person deceased heretofore or hereafter granted shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any moveable or immoveable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

Probates declared valid as to property though not covered by court-fee.

19E. Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has in consequence paid too low a court-fee thereon, the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority ¹[for the local area] in which the probate or letters has or have been granted may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of the grant, of five times, or, if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper court-fee, without any deduction of the court-fee originally paid on such probate or letters :

Provision for case where too low a court-fee has been paid on probates, etc.

Provided that, if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters, and if the said Authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper court-fee, the said Authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon.

Power to order progressive enhancement.

Rent once enhanced may not be altered for fifteen years.

¹8. If it thinks that an immediate increase of rent would produce hardship, the Court may direct that the enhancement shall take effect gradually at such times and by such instalments extending over a period not exceeding ten years as the Court may fix in this behalf.

9. When the rent of a tenure-holder has been enhanced by the Court or by contract, it shall not be again enhanced by the Court during the fifteen years next following the date on which it has been so enhanced ²[and for the purposes of this section, if an order for gradual enhancement of such rent has been made by a Court in accordance with the provisions of section 8, the full rent fixed by such order shall be deemed to have come into effect from the date of such order.]

Enhancement of rent.

Presumption as to fair and
rent.

27. The rent for the time being payable by an occupancy-raiyat shall be presumed to be fair and equitable until the contrary is proved.

Restriction on enhancement of money rents.

28. Where an occupancy-raiyat pays his rent in money, his rent shall not be enhanced except as provided by this Act.

Enhance-
rent by contract.

29. The money-rent of an occupancy-raiyat may be enhanced by contract, subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) the contract must be in writing and registered;
- (b) the rent must not be enhanced so as to exceed by more than two annas in the rupee the rent previously payable by the raiyat;

¹See foot-note 1 on page 567, ante.

of 1885.]

(Chapter V.—Occupancy-raiyats.—Section 30.)

- (c) the rent fixed by the contract shall not be liable to enhancement during a term of fifteen years from the date of the contract:

Provided as follows—

- (i) Nothing in clause (a) shall prevent a landlord from recovering rent at the rate at which it has been actually paid for a continuous period of not less than three years immediately preceding the period for which the rent is claimed.
- (ii) Nothing in clause (b) shall apply to a contract by which a raiyat binds himself to pay an enhanced rent in consideration of an improvement which has been or is to be effected in respect of the holding by, or at the expense of, his landlord, and to the benefit of which the raiyat is not otherwise entitled; but an enhanced rent fixed by such a contract shall be payable only when the improvement has been effected, and, except when the raiyat is chargeable with default in respect of the improvement, only so long as the improvement exists and substantially produces its estimated effect in respect of the holding.
- (iii) When a raiyat has held his land at a specially low rate of rent in consideration of cultivating a particular crop for the convenience of the landlord, nothing in clause (b) shall prevent the raiyat from agreeing, in consideration of his being released from the obligation of cultivating that crop, to pay such rent as he may deem fair and equitable.

30. The landlord of a holding held at a money-rent by an Enhance- occupancy-raiyat may, subject to the provisions of this Act, ment of institute a suit to enhance the rent on one or more of the rent by following grounds (namely):— suit.

- (a) that the rate of rent paid by the raiyat is below the prevailing rate paid by occupancy-raiyats for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the same village or in neighbouring villages, and that there is no sufficient reason for his holding at so low a rate;
- (b) that there has been a rise in the average local prices of staple food-crops during the currency of the present rent;

¹This clause (a) in sec. 30 was substituted for the original clause (a) by sec. 2 of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1898 (Ben. Act III of 1898). The original clause ran thus:—

“(a) that the rate of rent paid by the raiyat is below the prevailing rate paid by occupancy-raiyats for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the same village, and that there is no sufficient reason for his holding at so low a rate.”

(Chapter V.—Occupancy-raiyats.—Section 31.)

- (c) that the productive powers of the land held by the raiyat have been increased by an improvement effected by, or [wholly or partly] at the expense of, the landlord during the currency of the present rent;
- (d) that the productive powers of the land held by the raiyat have been increased by fluvial action.

Explanation.—"Fluvial action" includes a change in the course of a river rendering irrigation from the river practicable when it was not previously practicable.

Rules as to enhancement on ground of prevailing rate.

31. Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground that the rate of rent paid is below the prevailing rate—

- (a) in determining what is the prevailing rate the Court shall have regard to the rates generally paid during a period of not less than three years before the institution of the suit, and shall not decree an enhancement unless there is a substantial difference between the rate paid by the raiyat and the prevailing rate found by the Court;
- (b) If in the opinion of the Court the prevailing rate of rent cannot be satisfactorily ascertained without a local inquiry, the Court may direct that a local inquiry be held under ¹[Order XXVI in Schedule I to, and section 78 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908], ^{Act V of 1908.} by such Revenue-officer as the ²[State Government] may authorize in that behalf by rules made under ³[rule 9 in Order XXVI in Schedule I to the said Code];
- (c) in determining under this section the rate of rent payable by a raiyat his caste shall not be taken into consideration, unless it is proved that by local custom caste is taken into account in determining the rate; and whenever it is found that by local custom any description of raiyats hold land at favourable rates of rent, the rate shall be determined in accordance with that custom;
- (d) in ascertaining the prevailing rate of rent the amount of any enhancement authorized on account of a landlord's improvement shall not be taken into consideration;

¹The words "wholly or partly" were inserted by sec. 24 of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1928 (Ben. Act IV of 1928).

²These words and figures were substituted for the words and figures "Chapter XXV of the Code of Civil Procedure" by sec. 128, ibid.

of 1885]

(Chapter V.—Occupancy-raiyats.—Section 31A.)

- ¹(e) if a favourable rate has been determined under clause (c) for any description of raiyats, such rate may, if the Court thinks fit, be left out of consideration in ascertaining the prevailing rate;
- ¹(f) if the holding is held at a lump rental, the determination of the rent to be paid may be made by ascertaining the different classes of land comprised within the holding, and applying to the area of each class the prevailing rate paid on that class within the village or neighbouring villages.

²31A. (1) In any district or part of a district to which this sub-section is extended by the [State Government] by notification in the [Official Gazette], whenever the prevailing rate for any class of land is to be ascertained under section 30, clause (a), by an examination of the rates at which lands of a similar description and with similar advantages are held within any village or villages, the highest of such rates at which and at rates higher than which the larger portion of those lands is held may be taken to be the prevailing rate.

What may be taken in certain districts to be the "prevailing rate."

Illustrations.

(a) The rates at which land of a similar description and with similar advantages is held in a village are as follows:—

Bighas.				Rs. a. p.
100	at	1 0 0
200	"	1 8 0
150	"	1 12 0
100	"	2 0 0

TOTAL 700

Then Rs. 2-4 is not the prevailing rate, because only 150 bighas, or less than half, are held at that rate. Rs. 2 is not the prevailing rate, because 250 bighas, or less than half, are held at that or a higher rate. Re. 1-12 is the prevailing rate, because 400 bighas, or more than half, are held either at this or a higher rate, and this is the highest rate at which, and at rates higher than which, more than half the land is held.

¹Clauses (e) and (f) were inserted by sec. 3 of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1898 (Ben. Act III of 1898).

²Section 31A was inserted by sec. 4, ibid.

³See foot-note 3 on page 544, ante.

⁴These words within square brackets were substituted for the words "Calcutta Gazette" by paragraph 4(1) of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

[Act VIII]

(Chapter V.—Occupancy-raiyats.—Sections 31B, 32.)

(b) The rates at which land of a similar description and with similar advantages is held in a village are as follow:—

Bighas.		Rs. a. p.
100	at	1 0 0
250		1 4 0
150		1 8 0
150		1 12 0
TOTAL	700

Then for the reasons given in illustration (a), neither Rs. 2 nor Re. 1-12 is the prevailing rate, nor is Re. 1-8 the prevailing rate, because only 550 bighas (exactly half) are held at Re. 1-8 or at rates higher than Re. 1-8. In this case Re. 1-4 is the prevailing rate, because more than half the lands are held at Re. 1-4 or higher rates and this is the highest rate at which, and at rates higher than which, more than half the land is held.

(2) The '[State Government] may, by a like notification, withdraw sub-section (1) from any district or part of a district to which it has been extended as aforesaid.

²31B. When the prevailing rate has once been determined by a Revenue-officer under Chapter X or by a Civil Court in any suit under this Act, it shall not be liable to enhancement save on the ground and to the extent specified in section 30, clause (b), and section 32.

Rules as to enhancement on ground of rise in prices.

32. Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground of a rise in prices—

(a) the Court shall compare the average prices during the decennial period immediately preceding the institution of the suit with the average prices during such other decennial period as it may appear equitable and practicable to take for comparison;

(b) the enhanced rent shall bear to the previous rent the same proportion as the average prices during the last decennial period bear to the average prices during the previous decennial period taken for purposes of comparison: provided that, in calculating this proportion, the average prices during the later period shall be reduced by one-third of their excess over the average prices during the earlier period;

(Chapter V.—Occupancy-raiyats.—Sections 33—36.)

- (c) if in the opinion of the Court it is not practicable to take the decennial periods prescribed in clause (a) the Court may, in its discretion, substitute any shorter periods therefor.

33. (1) Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground of a landlord's improvement—

Rules as to enhancement on ground of landlord's improvement.

- (a) the Court shall not grant an enhancement unless the improvement has been registered in accordance with this Act;
- (b) in determining the amount of enhancement the Court shall have regard to—
- (i) the increase in the productive powers of the land caused or likely to be caused by the improvement,
 - (ii) the cost of the improvement,
 - (iii) the cost of the cultivation required for utilizing the improvement, and
 - (iv) the existing rent and the ability of the land to bear a higher rent.

(2) A decree under this section shall, on the application of the tenant or his successor-in-interest, be subject to reconsideration in the event of the improvement not producing or ceasing to produce the estimated effect.

34. Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground of an increase in productive powers due to fluvial action—

Rules as to enhancement on ground of increase in productive powers due to fluvial action.

- (a) the court shall not take into account any increase which is merely temporary or casual:
- (b) the Court may enhance the rent to such an amount as it may deem fair and equitable, but not so as to give the landlord more than one-half of the value of the net increase in the produce of the land.

35. Notwithstanding anything in [sections 30 to 34], the Court shall not in any case decree any enhancement which is under the circumstances of the case unfair or inequitable.

Enhancement by suit to be fair and equitable.

36. If the Court passing a decree for enhancement considers that the immediate enforcement of the decree to its full extent will be attended with hardship to the raiyat, it may direct that the enhancement shall take effect gradually at such times and by such instalments extending over a period not exceeding

Power to order progressive enhancement.

(7) If the raiyat agrees to pay the rent so determined, he shall be entitled to remain in occupation of his holding at that rent for a term of five years from the date of the agreement, but on the expiration of that term shall be liable to ejectment ²[subject to the provisions of this Act], unless he has acquired a right of occupancy.

Rules and presumptions as to
rent.

50. (1) Where a tenure-holder or raiyat and his predecessors-in-interest have held at a rent or rate of rent which has not been changed from the time of the Permanent Settlement, the rent or rate of rent shall not be liable to be increased except on the ground of an alteration in the area of the tenure or holding.

(2) If it is proved in any suit or other proceeding under this Act that either a tenure-holder or raiyat and his predecessors-in-interest have held at a rent or rate of rent which has not been changed during the twenty years immediately before the institution of the suit or proceeding, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that they have held at that rent or rate of rent from the time of the Permanent Settlement:

Provided that if it is required by or under any enactment that in any local area tenancies, or any classes of tenancies, at fixed rents or rates of rent shall be registered as such on, or before, a date specified by or under the enactment, the foregoing presumption shall not after that date apply to any tenancy or, as the case may be, to any tenancy of that class in that local area unless the tenancy has been so registered.

(3) The operation of this section, so far as it relates to land held by a raiyat, shall not be affected by the fact of the land having been separated from other land which formed with it a single holding, or amalgamated with other land into one holding.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to tenure held for a term of years or determinable at the will of the landlord.

Presumption as to conditions of holding.

51. If a question arises as to the amount of a tenant's rent or the conditions under which he holds in any agricultural year, he shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, to hold at the same rent and under the same conditions as in the last preceding agricultural year.

[Provided that no Court shall decree any addition of rent under this clause unless it is satisfied that there has in fact been an increase in the actual area of the tenure or holding since the rent previously paid was settled]; and

(b) be entitled to a reduction of rent in respect of any deficiency proved by measurement to exist in the area of his tenure or holding as compared with the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the tenure or holding by alluvion or otherwise, and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to the area.

²(1A) In determining in a suit under clause (a) of sub-section (1) whether there has been an increase in the actual area of the tenure or holding, the Court shall inquire as to whether the present areas of other tenures or holdings in the vicinity which were settled at or about the same time or on the same standard of measurement as the tenure or holding in suit, show increases in area compared with the area originally settled similar to that alleged in respect of the tenure or holding in suit: if such increases are found to exist, it shall be presumed (notwithstanding anything contained in any contract) that there has in fact been no increase in the actual area of the tenure or holding in suit since the rent previously paid was settled.

²(1B) When in a suit an increase in the actual area of the tenure or holding is sought to be proved under clause (a) of sub-section (1), the Court shall inquire as to whether the present area of the tenure or holding in suit is within the same defined boundaries as set forth in the kabuliyat or patta at the inception of the tenancy; and if the Court finds that the present area of the tenure or holding in suit is within such boundaries no increase of rent shall be granted on account of increase of area³[unless an equivalent reduction of rent on account of reduction of area has been granted in respect of one or more of the contiguous tenures or holdings]:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to any suit in respect of any tenure or holding of which any

(2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid, the Court shall, if so required by any party to the suit, have regard to—

- (a) the origin and conditions of the tenancy, for instance, whether the rent was a consolidated rent for the entire tenure or holding;
- (b) whether the tenant has been allowed to hold additional land in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the landlord;
- (c) the length of time during which the tenancy has lasted without dispute as to rent or area; and
- (d) the length of the measure used or in local use at the time of the origin of the tenancy as compared with that used or in local use at the time of the institution of the suit.

(3) In determining the amount to be added to the rent, the Court shall have regard to the rates payable by tenants of the same class for lands of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity, and, in the case of a tenure-holder, to the profits to which he is entitled in respect of the rent of his tenure, and shall not in any case fix any rent which under the circumstances of the case is unfair or inequitable.

(4) The amount abated from the rent shall bear the same proportion to the rent previously payable as the diminution of the total yearly value of the tenure or holding bears to the previous total yearly value thereof, or, in default of satisfactory proof of the yearly value of the land lost, shall bear to the rent previously payable the same proportion as the diminution of area bears to the previous area of the tenure or holding.

²(5) When in a suit under this section the landlord or tenant is unable to indicate any particular land as held in excess, the rent to be added on account of the excess area may be calculated at the average rate of rent paid on all the lands of the holding exclusive of such excess area.

³(6) When in a suit under this section the landlord or tenant proves that—

- (i) at or about the time when the area was recorded in any patta or kabuliyat there existed, in respect of the estate or permanent tenure or part thereof in which

(6) When a holding is subject to an incumbrance secured by a registered instrument, ²[or when there is an under-raiyat on the holding or part thereof] the surrender of the holding shall not be valid unless it is made with the consent of the landlord and the incumbrancer ³[or the under-raiyat, as the case may be].

(7) Save as provided in ³[sub-section (6)], nothing in this section shall affect any arrangement by which a raiyat ¹[or under-raiyat] and his landlord may arrange for a surrender of the whole or a part of the holding.

*86A. (1) If the lands of a tenure or holding or a portion of such lands are lost by diluvion, the rent of the ténure or holding shall be abated by an amount which bears the same proportion to the rent of the whole tenancy, as the area lost bears to that of the whole tenancy.

(4) Where the whole or part of a holding has been sublet by a registered instrument, the landlord shall, before entering under this section on the holding, offer the whole holding to the sub-lessee for the remainder of the term of the sub-lease at the rent paid by the ¹[raiyat or under-raiyat] who has ceased to cultivate the holding, and on condition of the sub-lessee paying up all arrears due from that ¹[raiyat or under-raiyat].
